Points of order:
Not involved: 8705, 8719, 8722, 9027.

Upheld:
Order and decorum, 8701.

Procedure:
A member was granted the call before another member had sought to adjourn the debate, 8705.

AS ACTING-SPEAKER:

Chair:
Members should address their remarks through the Chair, 1708,2581, 4288, 4289, 5169,5173, 5282.

Members must resume their seats when the occupant of the chair rises. 2668.

The Chair does not require the assistance of a member to decide a point of order, 7306.

Debate:
A member was permitted to refer to matters outside the leave of the motion, 140

Debate (continued):
Members were directed to return to the leave of the motion, 140, 1853, 3348, 4288, 5366, 5367, 7306, 7307, 7309, 7310, 7851.

A Minister was granted the same degree of latitude as had been previously granted to a member speaking in the debate, 142.

Members may contribute or reply to the debate at the appropriate time, 540, 2697, 4810, 5589, 7946, 7947.

The Chair accepted an explanation given by a member that the member was referring to notes, not reading a speech. Subsequently the Chair ruled that the member was reading a speech and called the member to order, stating that the member should speak from notes, rather than read them, 646.

In wide-ranging debate a member may refer to his electorate. 1708.

Members were asked to confine their remarks to the matter being debated. 1851, 3176.

Members are entitled to be heard in silence, 1851.

A member who moved an amendment was entitled to speak to it, 1851.

Members would have an opportunity to discuss the budget at the appropriate time. 1853.

A censure motion is a serious matter that the member the subject of the censure, and other members, have the right to defend, 2582.

A member needed no assistance from other members, 3177.

A member speaking in reply may refer to previous debate, 7314, but may not introduce new material, 7314.

Documents:
A member was directed to verify the document to which he was referring, 3388.
Mr R. J. CLOUGH:

As ACTING DEPUTY-SPEAKER

Member readmitted:
A member who had been named and removed from the House earlier that day was readmitted, following the passing of a motion to that effect, 9449.

Prepared speeches, 646.

Upheld:
Reference to documents, 3388.
References to members, 7309.

A member was directed to be seated while another member took a point of order, 141.

Members were directed to state the point of order, 142, 2430, 5044, 7306.

A member who had not established a point of order was directed to resume his seat, 5044.

Private members’ statements:
A Minister may reply on behalf of a ministerial colleague, 39.

Privilege:
A member was advised to follow the correct procedure in raising a matter of privilege, 5045.

Two members who had established a prima facie case of privilege were directed to prepare notices of motions that the Chair would recommend have precedence on the next sitting day, 5046.

Procedure:
It is for the Chair to control the proceedings of the House, 1852.

Standing orders do not preclude a member from reading a speech. However, members should not read speeches unless they can vouch that they have prepared the documents, 3218.

An amendment that was outside the scope of the bill as it related to a specific person, whereas the bill was generic and prospective, was ruled out of order, 8346.

A member may not assume that the Chair has allowed any licence in the debate, 8348.

Members should address their remarks through the Chair. 8349.

A Minister was directed to ignore interjections, 8350.

The Chair will not tolerate raucous interjections, 8435.

People in the public gallery were advised that they had no part in the Committee debate and that they should remain silent, 8346.

The Chair would not tolerate further interjections, 8347.

A member was directed to wait until the Committee came to order, 8346.

Members should not engage in cross-table debate with other members, 8347.

A Minister was directed to ignore interjections, 8350.

As Temporary Chairman of Committees:

Amendments:

Mr B. J. Gaudry:

As Acting-Speaker (continued):

Documents:
A member was permitted to make passing reference to a report, but not to debate its detail, 4390.

A member was directed to give a reference for a quotation read onto the record, 9114.

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:
A member had had an opportunity to contribute to the debate, 163, 4690.

Members should listen to the debate in silence, 252, 4690.

Members who wish to converse should do so outside the Chamber, 251, 1052, 2450.

Members should refrain from interjecting, 736, 784, 1515, 1823, 2854, 4691, 6471, 7304, 10783.

A member was asked to resume his seat because of his disrespect to the Chair, 785.

Debate:
Members may contribute or reply to the debate at the appropriate time, 736, 1124, 4193, 4690, 4692, 8647, 9048.

Members were directed to return to the leave of the motion, 737, 1050, 4198, 7304, 7367, 7937, 7938.

Members were directed to resume their seats, 785, 1828.

Members needed no assistance from other members, 1051, 6471, 8643.

Though a member may make passing reference to other matters, debate should be confined to the substance of the motion, 4391.

The Chair had not had the advantage of listening to all the debate but ruled that a Minister had introduced additional material and should return to the leave of the debate, 6453.

A member was directed to conclude introductory remarks, 7304.

A member was in order in making broad comments on an issue, 7543.

Members should refer to other members by their correct titles, 9114.

As a member appeared to be using her own handwritten notes, she was permitted to continue with her contribution, 7974.

A member was told that he would receive no protection from the Chair if he used first person references across the table, and that he should direct his remarks through the Chair, 8651.

The Chair was unsure whether a member was taking a point of order, or arguing with the Chair, but reminded the member that he had the call to continue his contribution on the budget debate, 8652.

A member was directed to continue his speech, or the Chair would give the call to the next speaker, 8652.

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:

Members should refrain from interjecting, 4312, 4313, 5011, 5332, 5471, 5656, 7231, 7235, 7238, 7985, 8104, 8650, 8720, 8721, 8872.

There was far too much interjection from both sides of the House, 4696, 5012, 5332.

A member with the call should be accorded the same respect that was given to a member who had spoken previously in the debate, 4696.

People in the public gallery were directed not to lean over the bar into the Chamber, 4937.

If the ruckus in the gallery behind the Chair did not cease, the Serjeant-at-Arms would be directed to remove people in that part of the House, 4938.

The Leader of the Opposition should deflect interjection by concluding his remarks, 5332.

The Chair was sick and tired of the barrage of interjections from Opposition members and directed that they restrain themselves, 8650.

A member who had already been called to order and had been granted considerable tolerance by the Chair, 8652.

There was too much audible conversation in the Chamber. 8881.

Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions:
Expressions required to be withdrawn: "You are a liar", 5331; "You wrote his speech", 7863.

Remarks complained of are a matter for debate and the member who complained could reject them in her contribution to the debate, 5332.

A member was directed to withdraw an inference behind a comment as it was not characteristic for those sorts of remarks to be made in Parliament, 8652.

The Chair had not heard words complained of, 8652.

The Chair would not rule the term "scumbag" to be unparliamentary, 8652.

An interjection complained of was not offensive, 8881.

Personal explanations:
A member was granted leave to make a personal explanation, 9438.

The Chair heard further from a member on his contentment that his character had been impugned, 9438.

Points of order:

Mr P. A. ROGAN:

As ACTING-SPEAKER:

Amendments:
An amendment that related to the substance of the motion was ruled in order, 1133.

A member was directed to hand to the Clerk a signed copy of an amendment, 1479.

Members who wish to move amendments should provide a copy to the Clerk in order that the Chair may be aware of any proposed amendments, 1479.

Chair:
Members should address their remarks through the Chair, 368, 1355.

The Chair took exception to a member speaking back to the Chair, 2665.

Debate:
Members may contribute or reply to the debate at the appropriate time, 371, 779, 780, 1356, 1389.

Previous Speakers have ruled that debate on censure motions is broad ranging and that great tolerance is allowed to all members speaking in the debate. The Minister the subject of the censure motion was ruled to be in order, 371.

As the mover of the motion to adjourn debate had already replied to the substantive motion, it was not in order for the member to move for the adjournment of the matter, 741.

A member was directed to return to the leave of the motion, 1024.

A member was permitted to make introductory remarks before addressing the specific wording of a motion, 1831.

Members who wish to speak in the debate should seek the call at the appropriate time, 2664, 2665.

Documents:
A member was not permitted to table a document but was directed to identify it and to vouch for its authenticity, 745.

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:
Members should maintain decorum during a censure debate, 369.

Although interjection encourages vigorous debate, members should conduct themselves with decorum, 779.

It is discourteous for members to conduct conversations in the Chamber. Members who wish to converse should do so outside the Chamber, 2452; otherwise the Chair would name them, 3183.

Members should refrain from interjecting, 2709, 2664.

Members were requested to cease conversing across the Chamber, 3183.

Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions:
A member was directed not to make threatening remarks across the Chamber, and to withdraw remarks already made, 2709.

Members should ignore interjections, 800.

Members who wish to converse should do so outside the Chamber, 1127, 7246; and should lower the level of conversation in the Chamber, 4207.

Members who fail to remain silent while the Chair stands will be removed for being disrespectful, 1371.

Members were directed to remain silent, 4204, 4208, 4399, 5871.

A member was directed to return to the leave of the motion and away from the personal denigration of a member of the House, 6361.

Members were directed to resume their seats, 6361, 6362.

If a member did not cease interjecting he would be removed from the Chamber, 6373.

Notices of motions:
Unless advice was received to the contrary, the Chair would rule a matter out of order and have it expunged from the notice paper. Following advice from the Clerk the Chair ruled a member may continue his contribution provided that he abided by the standing orders, 4401.

Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions:
A member withdrew remarks complained of, 6371.

A member was directed to state the point of order, 5788.

Private members' statements:
Members should listen in silence to Ministers’ responses to private members’ statements, 5585.

Procedure:
In response to a member calling the attention of the Chair to the state of the House, the Chair invoked the provisions of Standing Order 45 and directed that the business of the House should proceed, 2690.

Although a member had sought the call, the Chair was obliged to give the call to the mover of the motion in reply, 5340.

The Clerk was directed to read the order of the day, 5787.

It is unacceptable conduct for Opposition members to vacate the Chamber in support of a call for a quorum. Disciplinary action may have to be taken if such conduct is repeated, 5788.

A 30-minute time limit applies to debate on each committee report, 7667.

Relevance:
A Minister’s comments were ruled to be relevant to the debate, 9267.

Amendments (continued):
Two amendments were ruled to be in conflict with the principles agreed to at the second reading of the bill and were ruled out of order, 1360.

As there was a clash of amendments the Chair proposed that the Minister in charge of the bill move Government amendments and that the Opposition shadow minister then move a modified version of the Opposition’s circulated amendments, 7865.

A member was directed to speak to the amendments, 10523.

Points of order:
Upheld:
Amendments, 1360, 5167

MR SPEAKER (THE HON. JOHN HENRY MURRAY):

Amendments:
As a member was speaking to his amendment, he was allowed to continue his speech, 1382.

The Chair suggested that the word "school" should be deleted from an amendment in order to make the amendment suitable, 1382.

An amendment was ruled in order as it referred to implications set out in the original motion, 2672.

An amendment was ruled out of order as it was irregular. The amendment sought to reinstate those parts of the original motion that were deleted by a previous amendment. The result of the second amendment may be that the House would be required to vote a second time on the original motion, 2728.

The Chair requested that a copy of the amendment be handed to the Chair, 4306.

An amendment was ruled to be impractical and therefore out of order as it called on the Government to carry out an action which could not be carried out, 4307.

Members should confine their remarks to the amendments, 4717.

An amendment to a motion of no confidence in the Speaker was ruled out of order as Standing Order 123A states that such a motion may not be postponed or amended, 5792.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Amendments (continued):

An amendment was ruled in order as the reasons listed in the amendment were different from those listed in the original motion, 8612.

Parliament House facilities, 5524.

United States presidential visit, 6299.

Cancer Council morning tea, 9533.

Auditor-General’s briefings for members, 893, 10374.

As a mark of respect to the victims of the Port Arthur tragedy, the Chair announced that the House would adjourn for 35 minutes, 635.

The Chair announced the 20-year anniversary of the election to Parliament of the Leader of the House, 659.

The Chair announced that the Auditor-General had offered to provide briefings on Audit Office reports for all members the day following the tabling of any Audit Office report, 893; and that future Audit office reports would be available on the Internet, 9217.

The Chair advised that the House had requested the attendance of the Hon. M. R. Egan in order that the Treasurer might deliver the Budget Speech, and asked members to extend the usual courtesy and listen in silence to the speech, 1241, 8062.

The Chair announced that Mr Lee, Sun Jae, Deputy Speaker of the Seoul Metropolitan Council, had been invited to address the Chamber, as part of an exchange of visits between the New South Wales Parliament and the Parliament of the Seoul Metropolitan Council, and in recognition of the sister-State relationship between the parliaments of the Seoul Metropolitan Council and New South Wales, 8993.

Anticipation of debate:

As the budget debate extends over many sitting weeks and covers virtually all aspects of activities of government, and affects all citizens in some way or other, to apply the anticipation of debate rule in Standing Order 86 during the currency of the budget debate would be too restrictive to members. The Chair proposed that this rule should not apply during the currency of the budget debate on the basis that the budget debate is not necessarily the most effective means for all issues related to the budget to be raised. The Chair ruled that, unless otherwise directed by the House, during the currency of the debate on the State budget the anticipation of debate rule would not apply to any other procedure available to members, 8317. The Chair stated that the same ruling would apply to debate on the Federal budget, 8607.

In endeavouring to establish priority of a notice of motion for urgent consideration a member was not anticipating debate on the substantive motion, 266.

Behaviour of members:

In the context of the behaviour of members during question time the previous week and threats of actions by members reported in the weekend media, the Chair made a statement about the general behaviour of members. The Chair noted that Parliament is held in respect by society but that in order to earn and maintain that respect members must set examples as role models. Rowdy behaviour contradicts and undermines the positive values of a participatory democracy being instilled through civics education. Though members have an undoubted right of freedom of speech and are protected from legal proceedings being taken against them, to balance this freedom of speech there is a countervailing responsibility to use this right with considered care and due caution. The Chair would not tolerate a repeat of behaviour exhibited during question time the previous week, 5126.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

MR SPEAKER (THE HON. JOHN HENRY MURRAY) (continued):

Bills:
A member should establish the reasons for the restoration of the matter to the notice paper, 727.

The Chair advised members that additional copies of a bill would be made available by the Clerk, 756.

Censure:
Standing orders refer only to censure of a member and not specifically to censure of the Speaker or a Minister. In the debate concerning censure of the Speaker, the Chair interpreted the standing orders to permit the Leader of the House to use the 10-minute response time, as the Leader of the House undertook the original 10 minutes of the debate allocated for the member named, 1509.

Chair:
Members should address their remarks through the Chair, 257, 258, 354, 469, 527, 654, 656, 670, 792, 1045, 1239, 1374, 1376, 1457, 1491, 1504, 2563, 4493, 4713, 5146, 5280, 5436, 5525, 5569, 7250, 7253, 7519, 8048, 8060, 8224, 8452, 8650, 9233, 9430, 10795.

A member was directed to resume his seat as he was canvassing the ruling of the Chair, 468, 469.

If a member commented upon the ruling of the Chair, the member would be directed to resume his seat, 1594.

Members should not canvass the rulings of the Chair, 1046, 6310, and those who did would be directed to resume their seats, 6310.

The Chair stated that it understood that a member felt emotional about a matter and that in such circumstances members may make statements in the House that they may later regret. A member was given the opportunity to withdraw a reference to the Chair, but in doing so should use commonsense and show respect to the Chair, 9419.

Withdrawals of references to the Chair are unconditional, 9419.

Chamber power failure:
As a result of a power failure in the Chamber, the Chair left the Chamber until power was restored, 7639.

Consideration of urgent motions:
Members should confine their remarks to why their motion should receive priority, 257, 258, 1374, 1375, 1591, 1592, 1594, 1741, 1742, 2422, 2423, 2568, 2688, 3374, 4419, 4420, 4488, 4714, 4715, 5136, 5362, 5433, 5562, 5884, 6554, 7445, 7446, 8437, 8607, 8608, 8836, 9006.

Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Consideration of urgent motions (continued):
Members should not debate the substantive motion, 269, 1591, 1592, 1594, 1741, 1742, 2688, 4715, 5136, 5362, 5434, 6554.

As there was an amendment to a motion, members' comments were permitted beyond the terms of the original motion, 1600.

The Chair was of the opinion that there was consensus when one motion for urgent consideration was withdrawn, and proposed to put the question that the second notice for urgent consideration be proceeded with, 2570.

A member who flouted the ruling of the Chair and debated the substance of the motion would be directed to resume his seat, 2688.

Motions ruled in order, 3213, 8213.

The Chair advised the House that prior to the conclusion of the last sitting the Standing Orders and Procedure Committee had examined the issue of points of order in relation to motions for urgent consideration and that it was decided that more flexibility would be allowed in the debate to establish urgency, 4302. However, this procedure had broken down and therefore the Chair had reverted to interpreting the standing orders strictly, 5039.

Members should abide by the standing orders relating to the consideration of urgent motions, 4303, 4601, 5561, 5562, 8435.

Though the wording of a motion was wide-ranging, debate should be confined to the reason that urgency should be granted, 4714.

A member was entitled to refer to points raised by another member in relation to a notice of motion, in order to explain why one notice of motion should have priority over another, 5040.

The Chair allowed some latitude to a member at the commencement of a contribution, 5434.

A motion was ruled not to be the same as a motion on the notice paper, 6057.

In giving notice of a motion a member should not comment on the motion, 7816.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Consideration of urgent motions (continued):
A member who had given notice of a lengthy motion was permitted to refer to it, 7206.

Members may avail themselves of other forms of the House to rebut matters put to the House, 7445.

As the Opposition did not agree to a Minister's request to change the date in a notice of motion, the Minister must debate the urgency of the motion in the form in which notice of it was given, 7514.

It was unnecessary for a member to read a notice of motion before the priority of competing motions was determined, 7830.

A member was advised to amend a notice of motion, 7830.

It is for the House to determine whether a motion is urgent, 7831.

The Chair advised the House that should a motion that contained five parts proceed, and should a point of order be taken in relation to it, the Chair would rule the first and second parts of the motion out of order, 8212.

In arguing the priority of a notice of motion for urgent consideration a member is entitled to read the motion, 8436.

The Chair expressed concern about the length of urgency notices, bearing in mind the time limit of five minutes for each of two speakers to such notices of motions to establish priority. Notices of motions are being treated at debating points rather than notices of debate to be conducted at a later stage. The Chair indicated that a statement would be made on this matter the next day, 8595.

As foreshadowed the previous day, the Chair gave a considered ruling on the general trend for notices of motions, and notices of motions for urgent consideration, to contain argumentative and emotive terms, unnecessary statements of fact, points for debate and verbosity. The Chair referred the House to a statement of Speaker Snedden to the House of Representatives on 4 May 1977 in which Speaker Snedden stated that in future he would intervene in cases of notices of motions that were inordinately and unnecessarily long and would require the member to reform the notice or, alternatively, would have the clerks eliminate the argument and unnecessary statements of fact, 8729.

Consideration of urgent motions (continued):
The House was advised that the Chair would rule out of order notices that did not put a concise proposition upon which the House could vote. The Chair further reminded members to avail themselves of the advice of the Clerk in drafting motions. The matter of notices of motions is to be placed before the Standing Orders and Procedure Committee for consideration at its next meeting, 8729.

The Chair reminded the Leader of the Opposition of a previous ruling relating to the length of notices of motions for urgent consideration. The Chair accepted the notice of motion but warned all members that in future lengthy notices of motions would not be accepted, 9217.

As the member who had given notice of motion for urgent consideration was not within the precincts of the House, the matter lapsed, 9432.

It is in order for a member to seek to establish priority in order to move a substantive motion, and the House will decide whether a matter should be referred to an outside body, 9578.

The Chair noted nothing offensive in a notice of motion that required the intervention of the Chair, 9578.

The Chair advised a member that the letter the member had written to Mr Speaker regarding the operation of Standing Order 120(4)(a) relating to the priority debate on the consideration of urgent motions had been referred to the Standing Orders and Procedure Committee and had been dealt with by that committee, 9591.

Debate:
A degree of latitude was allowed in the debate and members should not abuse that privilege, 52.

Members are entitled to be heard in silence, 52, 4697, 5432, 7319.

Members need no assistance from other members, 53.

Members may contribute or reply to the debate at the appropriate time, 55, 270, 271, 769, 1163, 1237, 1365, 1504, 2653, 2730, 4493, 4777, 5256, 5437, 5685, 7250, 7854, 8344, 8441, 9430.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Debate (continued):

Although a degree of latitude had been allowed in the debate, the Chair would not allow it to continue, 56.

Members should refer to other members by their correct titles, 268, 3023, 3203, 5572, 5654, 6051, 6554.

A Minister was permitted to continue quoting from references, but was directed to be constrained in the use of the quotes, 354, 5432, 7934.

A member whose time for speaking had expired was directed to resume his seat, 531.

Members should return to the essence of the debate, 534, 2825, 5432, 5578, 6148.

A censure motion was ruled not to be restrictive, and the Minister's response was ruled in order, 666.

It is in order for members to quote from newspapers, so long as the quotes do not constitute the major portion of the speech, 795.

Members should return to the leave of the motion, 1045, 1119, 1366, 4579, 5259, 5269, 5572, 5687, 6705, 7521, 7522, 7834, 9234, 10794.

A member may take a broad-brush approach to debate on a matter of public importance, but may not talk in detail about a bill before the House, 1048.

As the debate had been wide-ranging, a member was permitted to continue, 1384, 4578, 5146, 5887, 6145, 9426, but was reminded not to stray from the matter before the Chair, 4578.

A member was permitted to make introductory remarks as the nature of the bill allowed for wide-ranging debate and referred to a referendum of all electors of the State, 2653.

Members who wish to contribute to debate should seek the call, 4304, 10384.

Members should not to test the patience of the Chair, 4304.

It is in order for a member to refer to copious notes, 4311.

Members had had an opportunity to speak in the debate, 4493, 8344.

A Minister was asked to rephrase a comment, 4575.

Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Debate (continued):

In order to streamline debate the Chair allowed members to speak on a second or third occasion to motions relating to new standing orders, but suggested that members introduce new material rather than rehash material introduced by other members, 4579.

If a Minister deferred his comments until other members had spoken in the debate, the Minister could reply to all contributions, 4582.

Members were asked to extend to members making their first or maiden speeches the usual courtesy of listening to the speeches in silence, 4590, 4802, 7857.

A member was straying from the standing orders which required him to establish why his notice of motion should be reordered to have precedence the next day, 4908.

A member who was straying from the content of the motion should not refer to a matter that was before the House and would be debated at another time, 5253.

A Minister should not debate the subject of another notice of motion before the House, 5270.

A member is entitled to refer to an interjection, 5561.

A considerable amount of licence had been given to one member in the debate and the same licence would be extended to another member, 5573.

The Chair always allows flexibility in debates relating to precedence of business, 6312, 6704.

It is not in order for members to anticipate debate, 6431.

Comments were ruled to be relevant to the motion, 7522.

In reply a member may refer to any matter raised in the debate, 7523, 7662.

A Minister is entitled to reply to debate without interruption from members, who have an opportunity to debate the matter in Committee, 8345.
Divisions:
As a member had not been able to come to the Chamber for a division, the Chair allowed the whips to discuss the matter, 531.

Standing Order 195 invoked, 1135

As the lifts were out of order a division was called off, the doors opened, and the bells rung for 30 seconds, 5328.

Members should remain seated during divisions, 5578.

Standing orders do not allow for a division to be recommitted to enable a member to sit other than where that member was when the doors were locked, 5873.

A member was directed to abide by the standing orders and to sit where she was when the doors were locked, that is, on the Opposition side, 5873.

Divisions deferred because of a disturbance in the gallery, 9014, 9123.

The Chair ruled that a member was entitled to vote as the question to be decided did not involve a direct pecuniary interest of the member whose right to vote had been challenged, 9578.

Documents:
Although a newspaper article had been tabled, the Minister should assure the House that the quotations are accurate, 468.

A member was asked to identify or verify a document, 896, 2736, 3027, 4304.

Members may quote from newspaper articles. However, standing orders and rulings of previous Speakers provide that members may not wave around newspaper articles or other documents, 1371.

The Chair ruled that a Minister had not read from an article, 2689.

Members are permitted to quote from newspaper articles if they verify the documents when required to do so, 3781.

A member was permitted to lay a draft report on the table for the perusal of members, 5325.

The Chair advised the House that normal practice had been followed, that a Minister had tabled a map with a bill and that it was available for perusal by members, 9601.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Interjection (continued):
If members did not refrain from interjecting, or if they attracted the attention of the Chair for disorderly conduct, they would be removed from the Chamber, 1372, 2566, 2568, 5147, 5148, 5525, 5526, 7445, 9419.

A member who had just entered the Chamber should not interject, 1495.

Members were advised that there was too much interjection and that a video of the proceedings, the subject of the censure motion being debated, was available for viewing, should members not wish to remain in the Chamber, 1502.

A member, who had attracted the attention of the Chair during question time, should remain silent during the debate, 1503.

Government members should not interject while the Leader of the Opposition makes a personal explanation, 4419.

The Chair could not hear a member taking a point of order over the level of interjections, 5135.

Members were directed not to respond to interjections, 5362, 7198, 7250.

There was too much interjection in the Chamber, 5236, 5432, 7206, 7519.

Order and decorum
The Serjeant-at-Arms was directed to attend to a person in the public gallery who was photographing members in the Chamber, 23.

Although a degree of latitude had been allowed in debate, members should maintain decorum, 53.

Members would have the opportunity to speak to a motion for urgent consideration if the matter proceeded, 258, 4488.

Members should maintain order and decorum in the House, 258, 522, 8344, 9055.

Members should listen to the reply to a censure motion in silence, and should extend to the Minister in reply the same courtesy that had been given to the mover of the motion, 664, 2738.
Interjections, interruptions and disorder (continued): The Chair directed the attendants to remove those who were causing a disturbance in the gallery, 4597.

Member are entitled to be heard in silence, 4705, 5876.

The Leader of the House for Opposition business was stretching the tolerance of the Chair and should set a good example for Opposition members, 4775.

The Chair has in the past allowed some tolerance to members clapping in the Chamber. However the removal of a member from the Chamber by a vote of the House was not an appropriate occasion for members to clap and on such serious matters in the future the Chair would uphold the standing orders strictly, 5149.

The fact that a member had made his initial speech the previous night was no reason for him to jump out of his seat this day, 5237.

The Chair will not tolerate interjection and disorder. If another member attracted the Chair's attention, the member with the call would be required to resume his seat, 5150.

It is difficult for Hansard to report the proceedings over noise in the Chamber, 5351, 6598.

A member was directed to desist from throwing papers across the Chamber, 5572.

A member who had disobeyed two previous directions from the Chair would be removed from the Chamber if he disobeyed another direction, 5574.

A Minister was directed to cease inciting the Leader of the Opposition, 5788.

People in the public gallery should not clap in the Chamber, 7319.

The Chair appealed to people in the public gallery to comply with the procedures of the Parliament, 7320.

The Chair appealed to people in the public gallery to abide by the procedures of the House and noted that this was the third occasion on which the Chair had had to ask for the cooperation of people in the public gallery. The Chair advised that if there was cause to appeal to the gallery on a fourth occasion, the gallery would be cleared, 7322.
MR SPEAKER (THE HON. JOHN HENRY MURRAY) (continued):

Points of order

Members who wish to take points of order should do so, and should not engage in conversation across the Chamber, 1491, 5427.

Members who interject while points of order are being taken will have time deducted from their speaking time, 3195.

As the Chair had ruled on a point of order, a member was directed to resume his seat, 4305.

The Leader of the Opposition was directed to resume his seat. If he continued to disregard the standing orders he would be removed from the House, 4418, 4419.

The Chair is entitled to hear points of order, 4061, 4769.

Interjections make it difficult for the Chair to hear points of order, 4601, 5433.

The House was called to order so that a member could take a point of order, 4601.

Members should remain silent while a member addresses the House on a point of order, 5433.

Members who wish to proceed with points of order should address their remarks through the Chair, 5560.

Members are entitled to raise points of order and to be heard in silence, 5433.

A point of order should be heard in silence as it may have an impact on future orders of the House, 5524.

Members should not interject while points of order are being taken, 7819.

Question time

Members should refrain from interjecting, 24, 28, 148, 656, 898, 1038, 1144, 1370, 1375, 1733, 1846, 2686, 3052, 3197, 3371, 3778, 3782, 4159, 4411, 4415, 4417, 4481, 4706, 4708, 4769, 4770, 4915, 5030, 5033, 5132, 5134, 5354, 5359, 5423, 5427, 5429, 5554, 5557, 5678, 5682, 5749, 5877, 5881, 6052, 6138, 6142, 6306, 6426, 6430, 6546, 6710, 6711, 7197, 7198, 7202, 7324, 7326, 7327, 7436, 7511, 7757, 7965, 7970, 8048, 8049, 8052, 8053, 8056, 8203, 8208, 8429, 8433, 8598, 8831, 9000, 9218, 9417, 9423, 9570, 10550, 10551, 10743, 10748, 10749.

Members who were on three calls to order were in danger of being removed from the House if they attracted the attention of the Chair again, 153, 527, 1846, 2421, 4163, 5356, 8428, 8429, 10745.

Ministers should not provoke members to interject, 153, 5036, 10552.

Members would have an opportunity to ask questions later in question time, 153, 1038, 1488, 1733, 4162, 4415, 4483, 7433.

The Chair would not tolerate the continuation of behaviour that had so far been exhibited during question time, 259.

Members who had already been called to order were deemed to be on three calls to order, 259, 355, 357, 468, 656, 657, 660, 5245, 5426, 5553, 5677, 6140, 6430, 6710, 7324, 7441, 7638, 7966, 8210, 8430, 9000, 9001, 9219.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Question time (continued): Members who were called to order during question time would be deemed to be on three calls to order, 259, 463, 8430.

Members were directed to resume their seats, 260, 894, 897, 1376, 2414, 2686, 3198, 4294, 4482, 4769, 4770, 5031, 5033, 5036, 5037, 5134, 5239, 5352, 5356, 5357, 5553, 5555, 5679, 5751, 5788, 6426, 6428, 6432, 6710, 6712, 7326, 7347, 8051, 8052, 9001, 9418, 9423, 10751.

The Leader of the Opposition, by his continual interjections, was not setting a good example for other members or for children in the gallery, 260, 4295, 5680, 9418, 4295.

The level of interjection and conversation made it difficult for the Chair and Hansard to hear the proceedings, 265, 357, 4164, 4297, 5035, 5424, 5428, 5554, 5556, 8048, 8049, 8050, 8055, 8596, 10749.

Members were directed to remain silent, 353, 354, 529, 894, 896, 897, 1492, 3198, 4164, 4297, 5035, 5424, 5428, 5554, 5556, 8048, 8049, 8050, 8055, 8596, 10749.

There was far too much interjection, 463, 2720, 4301, 4410, 4484, 5238, 5244, 5353, 7537, 7816, 8827, 9000, 9218, 10375.

Members who continued to interject would be placed on three calls to order, 467, 10743.

Members who continued to interject would be removed from the Chamber, 660, 898, 3779, 4416, 5882, 7203, 7326, 7512, 7819, 7824, 7965, 8596, 9418, 9422, 10378.

Members should address their remarks through the Chair, 761, 900, 1376, 4415, 4418, 5031, 5243, 5355, 5356, 7323, 7326, 7441, 7510, 7638, 7966, 8427, 8598.

The House is entitled to hear ministerial replies to questions without interjection, 894.

Ministers are entitled to hear questions without interjection, 896, 5877.

Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Question time (continued): Members were advised that, having asked questions, they should listen to the answers in silence, 1375, 2812, 3024, 3196, 4159, 4597, 4912, 6138, 6141, 7321, 7507, 8203, 8742.

Members were advised that if they continued to interject the Chair would call them to order, 1733, 10551.

Members who had been called to order during question time would be deemed to be on three calls to order if they were called to order again, 1736, 3025, 4160, 7637, 9131.

The Leader of the Opposition was directed to remove from the table documents he had placed there, 1734.

Members were directed to cease conversing across the Chamber, 1843, 2681, 2720, 3199, 3367, 4910, 5030, 5034, 5127, 5131, 5357, 5358, 5423, 5427, 5558, 5678, 6547, 7824, 10746.

Ministers are entitled to answer questions without interjections from Opposition members, 2416, 2421.

Member should not make background noises, 2558.

A member was directed to cease talking while a Minister was giving an answer, 2683, 8357.

The Chair had been very tolerant towards a member, but if that member attracted the attention of the Chair again, he would be removed from the Chamber, 2683.

Opposition members would have a right of reply after question time, 2685.

Members should not test the patience of the Chair, 3203, 3778, 4294, 4708, 5429, 5677, 5678.

Members should behave courteously, 3203.

Members should not engage in laughter and mass interjections, 3988.

The Chair stated that as this was the last question time before the House adjourned for the winter recess, continual interjections would not be tolerated. All members who had been called to order were deemed to be on three calls to order, 3777.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Mr Speaker (The Hon. John Henry Murray) (continued):

Members may participate in debate at the conclusion of question time and were requested not to interject during question time, 3778, 3782.

There was too much audible conversation in the Chamber, 4160, 7637, 7817, 7824, 7963, 8357, 8427, 8599, 8737, 8740, 8827, 8834, 8999, 9005, 9220, 9225, 10744, 10745, 10746.

Government members were asked to show courtesy to the Leader of the Opposition and listen to his question in silence, 4410.

Ministers need no assistance in order to answer questions, 4599, 4769, 5680, 6550, 7638, 7969, 8999, 9221, 9573.

Interjections are likely to prolong Ministers’ answers, 4706, 5029, 5881, 6710, 7511, 10743.

A member who was called to order three times was reminded that the House was about to take a two-week recess, 4710.

The attitude of a member was unbecoming. The member was warned that if he batted an eyelid for the remainder of question time he would be removed from the Chamber immediately, 5029.

A member may not ask a question and then to comment upon it, whether provoked by others or not, 5031.

Members who had already been called to order during question time would be removed from the Chamber if they were called to order again, 5032.

The Chair expressed concern about the behaviour of members, particularly the amount of interjection from both sides of the House, 5032, 5423.

Members should disregard interjections, 5033, 5036, 7511, and proceed with questions, 5036.

If the Leader of the Opposition did not cease interjecting, the Opposition backbencher with the call would be required to resume his seat, 5034.

The Leader of the Opposition should show leadership by not interjecting, 5034, 5680.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Mr Speaker (The Hon. John Henry Murray) (continued):

Members who were not interested in the subject matter of a question were advised to leave the Chamber. If they remained in the Chamber they should show courtesy to the Minister with the call, 5877.

Over the past couple of days a number of members had been removed from the House for interjecting. If members continued to breach standing orders by interjecting, the Chair would continue to remove them from the House, 6051, 8205, 10751.

If members continued to disregard previous directions about interjecting, they could not expect the Minister with the call to ignore the interjections and give a precise answer, 6052.

One member had already left the Chamber for interjecting, 6052, although this seemed to have had no impact on other members, 8430.

If members interject while a member who has been named is making a statement to the House, they will be removed from the Chamber, 6053.

The Chair was sick of the level of interjection during question time, 6140.

Members who persistently interject will be removed from the Chamber, 6141, 6544, 9417.

The tolerance or patience of the Chair was exhausted or being tested, 6710, 7200, 7753, 8205.

As it was close to the end of the session the Chair asked members to remain silent for the remainder of question time, 6710.

All members were placed on three calls to order, 7200, 9418.

The Chair needs no assistance from members, 7326, 9001.

The behaviour of Opposition members and the level of interjection from and conversation among Opposition members were unacceptable, 7440, 8430, 9219.

The Chair is entitled to hear a question, 7440.

Members are not entitled to respond to Ministers who are in the course of answering questions, 7441.

Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Mr Speaker (The Hon. John Henry Murray) (continued):

Members were directed not to excite people in the public gallery, 7329.

Pwple leaving the public gallery were asked to do so quickly and quietly, 7329.

Members should not engage in false or unnecessary laughing, 7756, 7819.

One member had been removed from the Chamber during question time the previous week and the Chair would not hesitate to remove members who behaved in such a manner, 7756, 7819.

Members were directed to provide a better example of behaviour to children in the gallery, 7819.

Although the whips may move about the Chamber during question time, other members should remain seated and listen to answers in silence, 7819.

Members who wish to converse should do so outside the Chamber, 7824, 7967, 10548, 10745.

The Leader of the Opposition should cease talking with Opposition frontbench members, 7963.

Ministers are entitled to respond to interjections during question time, 8209, 9219.

Members who flout the rulings of the Chair will be removed from the Chamber, 8429.

Unruly behaviour is unacceptable, 8598.

The Chair expressed its displeasure at the use of a poster and directed that it be placed in the rubbish bin, 8738.

The Leader of the Opposition was reminded of previous rulings relating to the waving around of documents, 8826.

It was difficult for the Chair to ask a Minister to respond directly to a question without notice when members from both sides interjected, and the Chair appealed to all members to cease interjecting, 9219.

A member was placed on three calls to order for trifling with the House, 10748.

Members who did not remain silent would be removed from the Chamber, 10751.
16 April 1996 to 27 June 1997

Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

MR SPEAKER (THE HON. JOHN HENRY MURRAY) (continued):

Matters of public importance:
A motion dealt with the leasing by the former coalition Government of Noel Park House at Tamworth, not the head office of the Department of School Education, 2825.

Members named: 1371, 5148, 6053, 9418, 10376.

The Serjeant-at-Arms was directed to bring back to the Chamber the member for Gordon, 1371.

The member for Gordon, having returned to the Chamber, was named by Mr Speaker, 1371. The member was directed to resume his seat and was reminded that in giving an explanation he should not reflect on the decision of the Chair, 1372.

The member for Gordon, having given his explanation, left the Chamber. Mr Speaker asked that the member return to the Chamber in order that he might be escorted from the Chamber by the Serjeant-at-Arms, 1372.

On the question of jurisdiction, Mr Speaker informed members that he had been advised that the precincts of the House extended to the front gate. In that connection the House had interpreted the meaning of precincts in a different manner from the interpretation placed on it by the upper House. Mr Speaker noted that there were difficulties in defining the precincts of the House and noted also the suggestion that the matter be brought to the attending of the Standing Orders and Procedure Committee, 1372.

As this was the first occasion during the session upon which the honourable member for Gordon had been suspended from the services of the House, the suspension was for two sitting days, 1373.

Points of order had been taken, prior to the suspension from the House of the member for Gordon, regarding the power of the Chair to compel the return of the member to the Chamber. It was not the intention of the Chair to convey that force should be used to ensure the return of the member and the Chair understood that force had not been used. Since Willis and Christie v Perry it had not been the practice of the Chamber to forcibly compel the return of a member to the Chamber, 3821.

A member named is entitled to address the House for five minutes and to be heard in silence, 10376.

The Chair extended tolerance to a member named to enable the member to address the House, 10377.

Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Members removed: 259, 275, 657, 662, 1845, 4711, 4713, 5133, 5149, 5358, 5882, 6051, 6054, 6055, 6431, 7325, 7328, 7439, 7512, 7825, 8053, 8071, 8205, 8430, 8601, 9001, 9420, 9422, 10378, 10751.

Members removed from the Chamber for the duration of question time, 1038, 1370, 1371, 1464, 4415, 8430, 10747, 10750.

A member was entitled to ask how many times a member who was removed from the Chamber had been called to order, 8053.

The Chair noted that a member had been suspended from the service of the House for four days but that, with the adjournment of the House, four days would not have elapsed until after the House resumed following the winter recess. The Chair proposed to overcome the technicality by ruling that the suspension conclude with the adjournment of the House that day, 10830.

Ministerial statements:
A Minister was permitted to continue, 4488.

The Leader of the Opposition was directed to disregard interjections and continue with his response, 8593.

Opposition members would have the opportunity to respond, 7628.

Notices of motions:
A member was directed to expedite the giving of a notice of motion, 258.

Members who wish to have the call should seek it, 258.

The Minister for Agriculture was directed to amend a notice of motion for urgent consideration as it contained unparliamentary language, 258.

The Chair directed that a notice of motion given earlier in the day should not be published in the business paper as it contained argumentative material and a non-existent circumstance, and was more appropriately a matter for debate. The honourable member concerned was invited to speak with Mr Speaker in his office should he wish to discuss the matter, 472.

The Chair postponed ruling on the admissibility of a notice of motion, 522, 5351.
Mr SPEAKER (THE HON. JOHN HENRY MURRAY) (continued):

Notices of motions:
A member was permitted to continue giving a lengthy notice of motion and the Chair would rule later on its admissibility, 1581.

In accordance with practice following a member's resignation, notices on the business paper in the name of that member were struck off, 4224.

An amended notice of motion from the honourable member for Ku-ring-gai in relation to censure of the Minister for Education and Training was accepted, 5365.

Notices of motions must be printed and handed up, and the notice of motion read to the House should be in the same form as the printed notice, 7321.

A member was in order in addressing the reason to reorder a notice of motion, 7630.

The Chair accepted a notice of motion but warned members that similar motions would be looked at closely to ensure they complied with the spirit of the standing orders. The Chair stated that a considered statement would be issued the next day about the length and content of notices of motions, 8594, 8595.

As foreshadowed the previous day, the Chair gave a considered ruling on the general trend for notices of motions and notices of motions for urgent consideration to contain argumentative and emotive terms, unnecessary statements of fact, points for debate and verbosity. The Chair referred the House to a statement of Speaker Snedden to the House of Representatives on 4 May 1977 in which Speaker Snedden stated that in future he would intervene in cases of notices of motions that were inordinately and unnecessarily long and would require the member to reform the notice or, alternatively, would have the clerks eliminate the argument and unnecessary statements of fact.

The Chair advised the House that the Chair would rule out of order notices that did not put a concise proposition upon which the House may vote. The Chair further reminded members to avail themselves of the advice of the Clerk in drafting motions. The matter of notices of motions was to be placed before the Standing Orders and Procedure Committee for consideration at its next meeting, 8729.

Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions:
A Minister was not impugning the character of another member, 355.

The words "corrupt conduct" used in answers relating to references to the Independent Commission Against Corruption were allowed, 354.

Expressions required to be withdrawn: "For God's sake", 365; "More lies!", 660; "Fool", 1036; "What a grub!", 2566; "Booheads", 2653; "Liar", 4699; "Shut your fat face", 5038; "Weaseling out", 5148; "Dope", 5890; "Dregs", 6055; "Shut up", 7326.

The Chair ruled that a member had said that another member had lied to the House, not that the member was a liar, and was therefore in order, 669.

The Chair stated that a member had withdrawn words said to be offensive, 760.

Although a phrase used by a Minister was unbecoming, the Minister did not name a member when he uttered the phrase and the Chair had difficulty in seeking withdrawal of the comments, 2566.

The Chair was unable to hear the Premier because he had his back to the Chair. Had the Chair heard language from the Premier that was out of order, the Premier would have been asked to withdraw it, 4415.

It is usual for a member who makes a statement directed at another member to withdraw the statement if requested to do so. However the debate was very heated at the time the statement was made and neither the Minister nor Opposition members was in full control of their thought processes. The Chair suggested that in the interests of the general demeanour of the House the Minister might withdraw the remarks, 5043.

The Chair noted that the Minister, after considering the general tone within the House, would recognise that in the heat of the moment he probably went a little overboard. The Chair stated that the Chair had interpreted the Minister's remarks differently from the manner in which the Minister asserted they had been made. The Chair stated that if the Minister informed the Chair that he had made a certain utterance, and not one previously thought to have been made, the Chair would accept that assurance from the Minister.
Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions (continued):
The Chair further noted that in the heat of the moment, with four members yelling and shouting on one side of the House, and three or four yelling on the other side, it was very difficult for the Chair to hear every syllable that every member uttered, 5044.

As the Chair had not heard words a Minister had said by way of interjection, but had merely heard the Minister utter something, the Minister was not required to withdraw remarks that were said to be offensive, 5134.

The Chair had not heard a Minister interject and was unaware whether the Minister was in the Chamber and, if so, where she was sitting, and therefore the Minister was not required to withdraw remarks that were said to be offensive, 5149.

The Chair ruled that in the relaxed circumstances of the debate a certain amount of leniency is allowed and that a Minister was not required to withdraw remarks that were said to be offensive, 5256.

In order to placate all members, a Minister was directed to withdraw a remark that a member was a liar, if that inference had been made by the Minister, 5890.

A member was directed to withdraw a reference to another member and to refer to a member by her correct title, 7202.

A member should not be so thin-skinned as to be offended by words complained of, 7204.

Although a member might believe that the word "dishonest" is unparliamentary, in a robust Chamber few would be fragile enough to take exception to that word in the heat of debate, 7435.

The Chair had not heard words complained of, 8059, 8606, 8617, 9224.

The House would not pursue a matter further in relation to offensive remarks but would proceed with question time, 7438.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Mr Speaker (The Hon. John Henry Murray) (continued):

Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions (continued):
The Chair can take action only when a matter is directed personally at a member, and the Chair did not interpret remarks complained of in that vein, 10378.

Parliament House security and staffing:
The Chair drew attention to statements made in the House earlier that day by the Leader of the National Party. By longstanding convention, matters pertaining to the administration of Parliament and the provision of members' services are discussed privately with the Presiding Officers. However, on this occasion the Leader of the National Party did not discuss the matter with the Presiding Officers but, rather, raised the issue in the House. All members should be assured that the Presiding Officers have members' utmost interests at heart, 147.

Personal explanations:
A member making a personal explanation may not debate the issue, 358.
A member making a personal explanation was ruled out of order, 662, 4419.
Members may make a personal explanation at the end of question time or other debate, 897, 1844, 4594, 5357, 5431, 5680, 5749, 6052, 6433, 7662, 7755, 7757, 7818, 8049, 8451, 8617, 9011, 9126, 9234.

The purpose of a personal explanation is to explain how one's integrity has been impinged upon or maligned, 4419, 4714, 5142, 5433, 5755, 6059, 7970, 8059, 9427.

The purpose of a personal explanation is to explain how one has difficulty undertaking parliamentary duties because of some misrepresentation, 5560.

Members were directed to come to the essence of the personal explanation as quickly as possible, 5560.

If a member was so precious that he could not take a bit of criticism, he could make a personal explanation at the end of question time, 5352.

A member was directed to state the reason for a personal explanation, 5526.

A member's comments were ruled to be outside the ambit of a personal explanation, 5526, 5755.

Members may not make personal explanations about events that occurred on another sitting day, 6056.

A member who sought to make a personal explanation at the end of question time was advised that pursuant to a resolution of the House, private members' statements had to be dealt with before the member could raise a personal explanation, 6436.

The purpose of a personal explanation is not to seek to have comments withdrawn, 8059.

Members should not reflect on other members when making personal explanations, 9427.

A Minister had made a statement that another member objected to, following which the Minister withdrew the statement. Therefore, there could be no personal explanation because the matter had been withdrawn from the House, 9427.

Leave was withdrawn by the Chair for a member to make a personal explanation as the matter had been dealt with, 9431, 9432.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Mr Speaker (The Hon. John Henry Murray) (continued):

Petitions:
The Chair informed the House of an irregularity that had come to light in petitions praying for the building of a polyclinic in the Lake Macquarie electorate presented to the House on 10, 11 and 12 October 1996 by the member for Lake Macquarie. As the petitions contained an alteration, in contravention of Standing Order 130(1), they were ruled out of order. The Chair directed that the records of the House note that the petitions presented on those days were out of order, and that the Clerk write to the appropriate Minister advising of the ruling.

Not involved:
October 1996 to 27 June 1997

Not involved (continued):
6429, 6705, 6709, 7319, 7322, 7325, 7327, 7332, 7433, 7441, 7510, 7512, 7513, 7514, 7515, 7519, 7521, 7523, 7631, 7632, 7633, 7634, 7639, 7640, 7662, 7758, 7818, 7819, 7820, 7831, 7833, 7934, 7969, 8060, 8184, 8203, 8206, 8212, 8213, 8356, 8428, 8430, 8431, 8435, 8436, 8437, 8451, 8601, 8617, 8734, 8737, 8739, 8740, 8831, 8840, 8998, 9011, 9130, 9131, 9222, 9226, 9234, 9409, 9420, 9422, 9423, 9425, 9426, 9571, 9572, 10547, 10549, 10552, 10553, 10747, 10748, 10749.

Relevance, 269, 1382, 2734, 2735, 3382, 7213, 7445, 7518, 7821, 7822, 7836, 10794.

Reordering of general business, 1368.

Right to speak to the motion, 273.

Second reading debate, 728.

Substantive motion, 9129.

Tabling of documents, 1734.

Unbecoming behaviour, 4172.

Waving around of documents or newspapers, 3781, 6049, 6052.

Members should remain seated while another member takes a point of order, 56, 152, 153, 268, 652, 1376, 7319, 8212.

The Chair would hear no further on a point of order, 56, 4305, 7323, 8594.

The Chair would not entertain a point of order, 258, 7437.

The Chair sought the cooperation of members with regard to the proliferation of points of order during question time, 468, 5428, 8052.

Members should speak to points of order only when given the call, 468, 469.

Members were directed to state the point of order, 469, 528, 660, 1039, 1229, 1370, 1494, 1587, 2423, 2688, 4411, 4488, 4773, 5426, 5434, 5526, 5679, 5680, 5750, 5879, 6051, 6138, 6141, 6303, 6305, 6308, 6704, 7322, 7327, 7830, 8052, 8212, 8435, 8436, 10743, 10751.

In taking a point or order a member should not give a preamble, 469.

The Chair would not entertain a point of order from a member and directed the member to resume his seat, 469, 8436.

Members were warned against taking inappropriate or frivolous points of order, 660, 762, 897, 1039, 1370, 4412, 7327.

A point of order was in the frivolous category, 763.

A member was warned that should he take a point of order in a similar vein he would be removed from the Chamber, 897.

A member was advised that he should have noted the warning given the previous day about taking frivolous points of order, and was removed from the Chamber, 1038.

A member was directed not to debate a point of order on which the Chair had already ruled, 1119.

As a matter was before a judge, but not before a jury, it was acceptable to debate it in the House as it was unlikely that such debate would prejudice the judge's thinking on the matter, 1153.

The Chair would hear no points of order until the member for Gordon returned to the Chamber, 1371.

A point of order was premature, 1494.

The Chair was unable to rule on a point of order because it did not know what the Minister intended to say in reply to a question. However, the Chair stated that the Minister would have noted the comments, 1585.

In order to take a point of order a member should stand in his or her place, 1585.

Members should not debate points of order, 2423, 6145.

The Chair was deaf to a point of order and ruled there was no point of order, 2563.

The Chair would not rule on a point of order until further submissions had been made, 2688.

The Chair stated that in ruling on an earlier point of order the Chair had not made reference to the aspect raised by the member in the point of order now before the Chair, 2689.

The Chair would not entertain further points of order, 4155, 7437, 8050, 8437, 8608, 8835, 9417, 9420.

A member was directed to resume his seat, unless he wished to raise a point of order that did not pertain to the substance of a previous point of order, 4305.

The Chair heard further from members on points of order, 4601, 4602, 5148, 5884.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

MR SPEAKER (The Hon. JOHN HENRY MURRAY) (continued):

Points of order (continued):

The Chair stated that it suspected that members were taking points of order as a disruptive tactic rather than as genuine points of order, 4773.

As a member's time for speaking had expired, a point of order had no further relevance, 5040.

Although a member is entitled to draw matters to the attention of the House, they must not be outside the realm of a point of order, 5241.

As the Deputy Leader of the Opposition had chosen to discuss the matter across the Chamber, the Chair declined to rule on the point of order. If the member took a point of order again and did not address his remarks to the Chair, he would be removed from the Chamber, 5553.

The Chair would not entertain a point of order until the member with the call had spoken on a matter of privilege, 5560.

The Leader of the Opposition was directed to state the point of order, or the Chair would have him removed from the Chamber, 5526.

A member was directed to resume his seat until he had his thought processes in order and wished to enunciate his point of order, 6057.

A point of order did not relate to a new matter, 6302.

Although the Chair had already ruled that there was no point of order, a member was allowed to further address the Chair on the point of order, 6705.

The Chair asked to hear further on a point of order, 7435.

The Chair would not rule on a point of order because it did not hear the words complained of, 7437.

The Chair would not entertain a point of order during question time as the Minister had not commenced the answer, 7510.

Before the Chair entertained a point of order, a member was permitted to speak further to the priority of the motion, 7515.

Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Precincts of the Parliament:

On the question of jurisdiction, Mr Speaker informed members that he had been advised that the precincts of the House extended to the front gate. In that connection the House had interpreted the meaning of precincts in a different manner from the interpretation placed on it by the upper House. Mr Speaker noted that there were difficulties in defining the precincts of the House and noted also the suggestion that the matter be brought to the attention of the Standing Orders and Procedure Committee, 1372.

Private members' statements:

During private members' statements a member is permitted to allude briefly to a matter raised in earlier proceedings, but not to develop an argument, 449.

A member had gone far enough in alluding to a matter and was directed to return to the leave of private members' statements, 449.

The Chair drew the attention of the House to a ruling of previous Speaker Rozzoli, namely, that the type of matter raised in a member's capacity as a shadow minister would generally be outside the spirit of a private member's statement. In the case before the House a shadow minister had made remarks in his capacity as a private member dealing with matters concerning his constituents rather than non-constituents, and had made those comments within the guidelines applying to private members' statements, 5000.

A member may raise a matter affecting a constituent, although the matter may relate to something outside the member's electorate, 5151.
Mr Speaker (The Hon. John Henry Murray) (continued):

Privilege:
No matter of privilege was involved, 154.

A member was advised to come to the essence of the matter so that the Chair could rule whether there was a breach of privilege, 4155.

The Chair directed a member to hand up a proposed motion of privilege so that the Chair could rule on the matter, 4156.

In relation to a matter of privilege raised the previous day, the Chair ruled that as the matter contained in the proposed motion related to internal party arrangements, and did not fully impinge on the privilege of any member of the House, there was no prima facie case of privilege established, 4292.

The Chair referred to matters of privilege raised by the honourable member for Ermington and the honourable member for Monaro on which Mr Acting-Speaker Clough had ruled that notices of motions from the members relating to privilege have precedence the next sitting day. The Chair reminded members of a ruling given on 18 September 1996, that one element of a breach of privilege is the reflection upon the character or the actions in the House of a member which prevents that member from carrying out his or her duties. However, to make a matter of privilege out of every heated exchange in a robust House would make proceedings unworkable. The Chair noted that the comment complained of was not the subject of a point of order by either the honourable member for Ermington or the honourable member for Monaro, but another member, and that neither the honourable member for Ermington nor the honourable member for Monaro spoke to the point of order. The Chair ruled that no prima facie case had been established as the members had failed to demonstrate how what was said would impede them in the performance of their duties as members. The Chair directed that the notices be struck from the business paper, and allowed each member to speak to the ruling on the matter, 5147.

If the Chair heard a remark that was considered to be disrespectful, the member would be asked to withdraw the remark. On this occasion the Chair failed to hear the remark complained of. If the Chair were to uphold a point of order that the Chair should ask the member whether the remark was made would require the Chair to continually be asking members to explain whether they had made such comments. The Chair ruled that the Chamber would not be run in that manner and that the Chair would allow robust debate, 5150.

A member whose comments were outside the standing orders was permitted to conclude his remarks. 5150.

A member's comments did not relate to privilege and the member was permitted to make a personal explanation if he wished to do so, 5560.

A member was allowed to raise a matter of privilege, rather than make a personal explanation, 6057.

A member may establish a case of privilege and bring a motion before the House, 6057.

Procedure:
A member was directed to resume his seat, unless he wished to take a point of order, as he had not been given the call, 54.

A member who has already spoken in the debate cannot move closure, 1163.

Standing orders provide for only one reply to a debate, 1368.

A member must move for the suspension of standing orders, 1377.

A member was directed to formally move a motion, 3030.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Procedure (continued):

The Chair advised that, pursuant to a resolution of the House, and until the House disposed of certain motions of no confidence, no matter of public importance could be dealt with at the time set out in the routine of business. The motions would have priority in the order in which they were given, unless the House determined otherwise. In the meantime, members were free to submit matters of public importance to the office of Mr Speaker if they so wished.

5238.

The Chair was not privy to any private arrangements made between the whips and other members of the House in relation to pairs.

5550.

Any member is entitled to seek the call, if the member with the call has concluded his contribution.

5524.

It is in order for a Minister to foreshadow amendments to be moved in Committee during a Minister's reply on the second reading of a bill.

5942.

The Chair directed that a member's time for speaking re-commence as his presentation to the House had been interrupted by discourse across the Chamber.

5788.

As leave was granted for the third reading of a bill, the Chair was bound by the wish of the House, not by the wish of an individual member who sought to have the bill dealt with by the Committee of the Whole.

5874.

A motion that the question be now put could not be proceeded with.

6312.

A bill was removed from the notice paper in order that the five-day rule could be complied with.

6422, 6423.

The Chair directed the Clerk to stop the clock while the House dealt with points of order relating to sub judice.

7215.

Members have various avenues by which they can pursue issues.

7441.

There was no point of clarification and a member was directed to resume his seat.

8051.

A member should not hold a glass when addressing the Chair.

8209.

Questions upon notice:

It is not competent for one member to withdraw a question upon notice asked by another member, especially without the Chair having an indication from that member that he wanted the question withdrawn. The Chair upheld the practice of the House and directed that if a member wishes to withdraw a question the member should seek personally to do so at the time for the placing or disposal of business the next sitting day.

6374.

Questions without notice:

Form

Members were asked to rephrase or restate questions.

29, 2414, 4484, 4709, 4711, 4911, 5130, 5135, 5430, 7330, 7440, 7505, 8742, 9416, 9570, 10547.

Questions ruled in order, on the basis that it was not a matter already before the House.

266, and not to be too long.

2810.

A member was asked to read a question again.

523.

During the previous session it became precedent during question time not to refer to matters before the Independent Commission Against Corruption. The Chair expressed the view that it was difficult to rule a question out of order on the basis that it was before a court, when the ICAC was not a court as most people understand that term. The Chair declined to rule on the matter, but would rule at a later time on the admissibility of such questions, 1227.

Questions relating to the personal affairs of members are out of order, 1489, 5752, 6713. The Chair left it to a Minister to decide whether to answer the question, 1489.

The Leader of the Opposition was permitted to ask a question, but not to comment on the question once it was asked, 1582.

Standing orders limit the number of questions that can be asked during question time, but not the length of time taken to answer them, 1586.

No time limits were applied to answers to questions without notice, and members should pay attention to Ministers’ answers, 2720.

A comment was ruled to be an aside and not part of the question, 2810.

A question seeking a legal opinion was ruled out of order, 2811.

The Chair advised that to ensure the orderly conduct of the business of the Chamber, any question containing additional irrelevant and unnecessary material would be ruled out of order, 2814.

As a question contained more than one question, a member was requested to rephrase it, 3202.

Wide-ranging or lengthy questions would elicit lengthy responses, 4769, 5130.

Questions ruled out of order, 5031, 6713.

A question was ruled out of order because of the actions of the member who asked it, not because of its content, 5033.

As some hypothetical elements were allowed in a question, the Chair ruled that the Minister was entitled to reply in a similar vein, 6709.

The Chair allowed a question that included comment, as the comment might assist the Minister to answer it, 7506.
Assembly Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Mr Speaker (The Hon. John Henry Murray) (continued):

Minister’s latitude (continued):
A Minister who had been allowed a certain degree of latitude in answering a question was directed to make his comments relevant to the answer, 1585.

In answering a question a Minister may respond to interjections, 1586, 2686.

The Chair drew the Premier’s attention to the question that was asked, 4594.

The Chair could not foresee what a Minister might say in response to a question and would wait until the Minister had read some correspondence to the House before ruling on the answer, 4770.

A Minister’s answer was ruled in order, 5356, 5357, 6544, 6709, 6711, 7433, 7509, 8430, 9225, 9577.

Although the subject matter of a question was sensitive, the Premier was in order in answering it, 5750.

Ministers may make passing reference to a document but may not wave it or parade it around the Chamber, 5879, 6545.

A Minister was directed to resume his reply in a dignified manner, 5879.

The Chair could not determine whether a Minister was about to conclude an answer, 6305.

A Minister was not permitted to continue his answer in the same vein that he had been, 6433.

A Minister was permitted to continue the answer, 7204.

A Minister who had sought the call, but did not get the call, was permitted to ask a question, 5359.

In the absence of the Leader of the Opposition the call for the first question was given to the first member who sought the call, that is, a Government member. However, the absence of the Leader of the Opposition would not preclude the House from dealing with 10 questions during question time, as provided for in the standing orders, 6302.

The Chair ruled that, having given the call to a member who then chose to engage in discussion with another member, the member who had been given the call had forfeited the call and should resume his seat, 6310.

A motion that a member be further heard was out of order as the Chair had ordered the member to resume his seat and the member therefore did not have the call, 6310.

A question that elicited additional information relating to a matter that had been dealt with by the House was ruled in order, 6431.

It is for the Chair to determine who would speak in debate, not members, 7326.

The 11th question in question time was ruled to be in order as it was a supplementary question, 7331.
Mr Speaker (The Hon. John Henry Murray) (continued):

Procedure (continued):
The primary purpose of question time is to obtain answers to question, 7438.

A Minister needs no assistance with his answer, 7638.

Supplementary
A member was advised that he could not ask a further supplementary question, 154.

A Minister was permitted to give a supplementary answer, 659.

Questions ruled not to be supplementary questions, 4416, 4487, 4771, 8604.

Questions ruled to be supplementary questions, 4418.

Members may ask a supplementary question at the end of the answer, 6545.

The manner in which a member asked a supplementary question was out of order and the question was ruled out of order, 7637.

The Chair drew the attention of the House to the provisions of Standing Order 140(5) that allow for a Minister to provide additional information at the conclusion of the question period to questions already answered at the current or a previous sitting, 8605.

Relevance:
A member was directed to return to the essence of the debate, 1382.

A member's comments bore no resemblance to the subject matter of the notice of motion, 1494.

Although a member's comments were strictly outside the leave of the motion, the member was permitted to continue as debate had been wide-ranging, 1384.

A contribution was in response to material introduced by the Minister in charge of the bill, 7934.

Reordering of general business:
As two members had given notices to reorder general business for tomorrow, the Chair advised the member moving the second motion that he would have an opportunity to speak to that motion after the Minister had spoken in reply and if the question in relation to the first motion was resolved in the negative, 5236.

The Chair advised the House that the Chair was in error in allowing the Leader of the Opposition to proceed with a motion to reorder general business. Standing orders allowed for the reordering of orders of the day for bills, but not for general business notices of motions for bills. The motion was therefore ruled out of order, 8201.

The Chair observed that a point of order taken by the Deputy Premier may have some validity. However, earlier that day the Chair indicated that a considered statement would be made the following day concerning notices of motions. Were the Chair to grant precedence in the present case, yet rule such matters out of order in the considered statement to be given to the House, the order granting precedence would become redundant and would preclude another member from having a matter reordered. In the circumstances the Chair ruled the motion out of order, 8595.

Standing orders do not allow a second member to move a motion to reorder general business, although they do allow for the member to speak against the motion before the House, 8997.

Reordering of general business (continued):
In speaking against a motion to reorder general business, a member must speak to the motion itself, and not to any proposed alternative motion, 8997, although passing reference may be made to a proposed motion, 8998.

Routine of business:
Although agreement had been given to the reordering of general business, a member was advised that he was at liberty to continue his remarks in support of the reordering, 3195.

Second reading speeches:
The established practice of the House dictates that second reading speeches for Government bills are delivered only by Ministers and the Chair suggested that a Minister continue the speech that had been commenced by another member, 9101.

Sub judice rule:
The Chair announced the receipt of a letter from the Attorney General foreshadowing the moving of a motion by the Opposition in relation to an alleged incident of school violence at Marrickville High School. The Chair stated that it would adhere to the advice of the Attorney General that to discuss the matter in Parliament would be sub judice. However, the Chair ruled that debate could be confined to paragraph (d) of the motion as it did not refer to the specifics of the case, 7214.

The Chair advised the House of the receipt of advice from the Attorney General that debate that touched the matters subject to court proceedings on the alleged contamination of Wallis Lake oysters would breach the sub judice rule, and asked members to abide by that advice, 7630. The Chair was obliged to inform the House of that advice, but acknowledged that the House would make its own decision, 7631.

Tabling of documents:
A member who wished a Minister to table an item should seek to have the item tabled when the matter was under discussion, not after the Minister had passed on to other matters, 665.

Tabling of a document is not warranted until sufficient of the document has been quoted, 667.

Standing orders do not permit the Leader of the Opposition to table photographs, 4167, 4306.

Standing orders allow for a Minister to table documents if the Minister so chooses, but the Chair cannot direct the Minister to do so, 1493.

REVEREND THE HON. F. J. NILE:
Appointment, 315.
THE HON. HELEN SHAM-HO:
Appointment, 315.
THE HON. ANN SYMONDS:
Appointment, 315.

THE HON. JENNIFER GARDINER:

As Deputy-President:

Chair:
Members should address their remarks through the Chair, 4069, 5968.

A member should not reflect upon the Chair, 5518.

Debate:
As the debate had been of a wide-ranging nature, it was in order for the chairman of the committee the subject of the debate to respond to matters raised, 5516.

Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions:
A member’s comments were ruled to be generic and not impugning on any particular member, 8520.

Points of order:
Not involved: 5516, 8520.

As Temporary Chairman of Committees:

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:
A member was directed to address his remarks to the amendments rather than respond to interjections, 11136.
Council Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

The Hon. Dr MARLENE MARY HERBERT GOLDSMITH (continued):

As Temporary Chairman of Committees:

Amendments:
Amendments ruled in order, 6905.

Debate:
Members who wish to take part in the debate should seek the call, 10942.

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:
If a member wishes to be heard in the debate, he should seek the call at the appropriate time, 983.

The reading of newspapers in the Chamber is disorderly, 10937.

THE HON. JOHN RICHARD JOHNSON:

As Deputy-President:

Announcements:
The Chair informed the House of the presence if the President's gallery of a long-time distinguished servant of the House, Mr Les Jeckeln, 3289.

Debate:
A member was directed to return to the leave of the bill, 2991, 2998.

Documents:
As a photograph was readily available in the Library, the Chair ruled that it would be a burden on the resources of the Parliament to have it incorporated in Hansard, 2602.

A member was asked to identify a document, 2989.

It is a drain on the resources of the State for a member to read on to the record material that is readily available, 2990, 2996.

A member was doing a disservice to the House by continually quoting from a document that was readily available and was asked to desist, 2996.

Members should abbreviate the content of quotations if all members have copies of the same correspondence, 11035.

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:
Members were directed to cease conversing across the Chamber, 2995.

Members should refrain from interjecting, 2602, 11181.

Council Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Members were directed not to respond to interjections, 2991.

Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions:
If a member believed he had been misrepresented, he should make a statement at the appropriate time, 1577.

Expressions required to be withdrawn: “Ignorant”, 1767.

Personal explanations:
Members would have the opportunity to make a personal explanation at the appropriate time, 11181.

Points of order:
Not involved: 3286, 4942.

Not upheld:
Imputations, 1577.
Relevance, 4942.

It is competent for any member to raise a point of order, 2989.

A member was directed to address the point of order, 2998.

As the Chair accepted a member’s explanation relating to a point of order, it became unnecessary to rule on the point of order, 3000.

As Temporary Chairman of Committees:

Procedure:
As no member had sought the call to debate consideration of amendments from the other House, the motion having been moved that the Temporary Chairman report to the House that the Committee had agreed to the other House’s amendments, any further debate was ruled out of order, as the Chair had to proceed in accordance with the standing orders and report the bill to the House, 9079.

THE HON. HELEN WAI-HAR SHAM-HO:

As Deputy-President:

Chair:
Members should address their remarks through the Chair, 10855.

Debate:
A member was directed to return to the leave of the motion, 4545.

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:
The reading of newspapers in the Chamber is disorderly, 10351.

Members should refrain from interjecting, 10356, 10357.

Members were directed to resume their seats, 10357.

The use of mobile phones in the Chamber is disorderly, 11316.

Points of order:
Not involved: 10357.

Procedure:
A member's time for speaking had expired, 8118.

As Temporary Chairman of Committees:

Amendments:
A member was asked if he wished to have amendments put seriatim, 8037.

THE HON. ELIZABETH ANN SYMONDS:

As Deputy-President:

Debate:
From time to time members make ill-considered responses in the House. Argument in the House would be barren if a strict interpretation of the standing orders allowed debate to be stifled, 1789.

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:
Members should refrain from interjecting, 1789

The level of conversation behind the Minister was distracting and members who wished to converse were advised to do so outside the Chamber, 6655.

DEPUTY-PRESIDENT AND CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (THE HON. DUNCAN JOHN GAY)

AS DEPUTY-PRESIDENT:

Amendments:
An amendment was ruled not to be an amendment of an amendment already before the Chair, but an amendment of the original motion, 221.

Chair:
Members should address their remarks through the Chair, 5614, 8807.

Debate:
Members should extend to members making their first or maiden speeches the usual courtesy of listening to the speeches in silence, 1565.

Members were directed to return to the leave of the motion, 7397, 7887, 7897.

A longstanding tradition of the House is that in the reply to the budget members are given wide latitude to canvass issues. A member's comments were ruled to be in order, 8802.

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:
Members should refrain from interjecting, 184.

Members need no assistance to answer a question, 4081.

A member was directed to desist from continually questioning a Minister, 5479.

The Chair had difficulty hearing a Minister's answer over the chatter in the Chamber, and directed members to be courteous to the Chair and to Hansard by desisting from chattering, 5615.

Members should seek the call if they wish to make a contribution to the debate, 8803, 9520.

Members were directed to reduce the level of noise in the Chamber, 11056.

As the Chair, Hansard and members were having trouble hearing the member with the call, members were directed to reduce the level of noise in the Chamber, 8370, 8806, 8807, 8812, 8813, 9081.

The Chair directed Government members to desist from behaving like football hooligans, and from calling out across the Chamber, as such behaviour was unparliamentary, 8810.

Questions without notice (continued):
The Chair undertook to refer a question relating to a photographic exhibition in the Fountain Court to the President, 7903.

Relevance:
Remarks must be relevant to the motion, 224, 225.

AS CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES:

Amendments:
Members comments should be relevant and confined to the amendments under consideration by the Committee, 1684, 3586, 4830, 11208.

If amendments were agreed to, it may become necessary to move a consequential amendment, 1217.

As a foreshadowed amendment related to a clause, the subject of an amendment before the Committee, the Chairman sought the agreement of the Committee to deal with the amendment, followed by the foreshadowed amendment, 1223.

An Opposition amendment was ruled out of order as it reversed the principle of the bill, 2482.

Amendments ruled in order, 2483.

Amendments were ruled out of order as they were beyond the scope of the bill, 3018.

An amendment that sought to amend amendments already ruled out of order was in turn also ruled out of order, 3019.

On the basis that the long title and the object of the bill under consideration made an amendment irrelevant, the amendment was ruled to be inadmissible, 4264.

The Chair sought clarification from a member as to whether the member was speaking to an amendment that member had recently provided to the Clerk, 6618.

A member was advised that handing an amendment to the Clerk at the beginning of the Committee stage created some problems as the amendment had to be checked with Parliamentary Counsel. The Chair advised the member that the new amendment fell between two other circulated amendments and it was unclear which amendment the member was speaking to, 6619.

Members should provide the Clerk with amendments to bills prior to the bills being introduced, 6649.

Amendments (continued):
As amendments under consideration were quite discrete and concise, members comments should relate to the amendments only, and members should not take an opportunity to revisit their second reading speeches, 6864.

Chair:
Members should not canvass the rulings of the Chair, 8956.

Members should address their remarks through the Chair, 8956.

Divisions:
Although the Chair heard only one voice for the ayes, the Deputy Clerk had heard two voices, and the division bells were rung, 3016.

Divisions called off, 11217.

Documents:
Members may not table documents during the Committee stage, but may read the documents onto the record, 8957.

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:
Members who wish to converse should do so outside the Chamber, 834.

Interchange between the member with the call and other members in the Chamber made it difficult for Hansard and the Chairman to follow the debate, 834.

During the Committee stage of a bill all members and Hansard must be able to hear contributions to the debate. Members were requested to be courteous and to refrain from conversing across the Chamber, 3144.

The level of conversation was too high, 8956.

Members must not converse with visitors in the public gallery, nor should visitors attempt to speak to members across the barrier between the gallery and the Chamber, and those who attempted to do so would be removed from the gallery, 10201.

A member was directed to remove a mobile phone from the Chamber, 11217.

It is unacceptable for members to use mobile phones in the Chamber and members were directed to desist from the practice, 11306.

Members' dress:
The Chair deferred ruling on a point of order that a member's wearing of a badge stating "Stop Wooldridge's scalpel" constituted political advertising and should not be worn, 6865.

The Chair ruled that the standing orders of the House do not govern the dress of members in the House, and referred to rules of dress in the Federal Parliament and as set out at page 392 in Erskine May's Parliamentary Practice. It is inappropriate for members to attend the Chamber wearing articles of clothing or items of decoration which reflected political views, commercial interests or similar things. However, the wearing of lapel badges such as member's badges is discreet enough not to offend against the House. In order to ensure that the standard of dress in the Chamber is not eroded, only lapel badges the size of, or smaller than, the current members' badges may be worn in the Chamber, 6873.

Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions:
It is offensive for a member of the House of Lords to be accused of buying his seat, without any evidence being offered in support of the accusation. A member was asked to rescind a statement and to keep his comments relevant to the amendment before the Committee, 3016.

Points of order:
Not involved: 1684, 3587.

Not upheld:
Committee debate, 2484, 3586.
Relevance, 3016.

Reserved: 6865.

Upheld;
Committee debate, 3584.

The Chairman accepted a member's assurance that, having moved the amendment, the member was confused and called "No" instead of "Aye", 2484.

If in Committee a member wishes to refer to comments made by other members during the second reading debate, it must be done by reference to the amendment before the Committee, 3584.

Procedure:
Consideration of part of a bill was deferred until after the Committee had dealt with an amendment, 1187.
Council Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

Announcements (continued):
The Chair announced that the Deputy Auditor-General, by letter of 25 June 1977, had advised the Parliament that owing to the number and complexity of matters raised for further consideration, the report of the inquiry into the level and development of the Sydney Showground site could not be tabled prior to the completion of the parliamentary sittings but would be tabled out of session, 11264.

Chair:
Members should address their remarks through the Chair, 108, 219, 583, 584, 2376, 5612, 11031.

Members should remain seated when the Chair rises, 8137.

Chamber power failure:
As a result of a power failure in the Chamber, the Chair left the Chamber until power was restored, 7572.

Debate:
A member was directed to address the Chair on the issue as to why an expression used was not a transgression of Standing Order 79, 5311.

Members were directed to return to the leave of the motion, 584, 5310, 6669, 8000, 8001, 8002.

Members were directed to make their comments succinct, 6669; and relevant to the motion, 8911.

A Minister was asked if he was speaking in reply on a bill or making a second reading speech, as the Chair observed that the objects of the bill were included in the Minister’s incorporated second reading speech, 7012.

Members may contribute to the debate at the appropriate time, 7149, 7150, 11160.

The Chair ruled that although the suspension of standing orders permitted the unusual situation of allowing members to speak a second time to the same motion, provisions relating to tedious repetition would apply, and that the Chair would interpret the standing orders as they relate to tedious repetition, regarding members’ second contributions as continuations of their first speeches, 8003.

A member was directed to contain her remarks to the matter she had raised, and not to refer to the subject matter of a notice of motion, 9374.

Members may avail themselves of other forms of the House to rebut matters put to the House, 10845.

A member was not reflecting adversely on another member, 10872.

Debate on a motion is not an opportunity for members to engage in interrogatories across the Chamber, 11013.

The Chair noted that a member was anticipating debate on a motion of which he had given notice. However, the Chair had a discretion in these matters in the likelihood or the unlikelihood of the motion ever coming on for debate and allowed the member to continue, 11338.
PRESIDENT (THE HON. MAX FREDERICK WILLIS) (continued):

Documents:
A member who had tabled a document should not seek to argue or debate its content, but should restrict his remarks to the relevance of the document to the motion, 582.

A member was asked to refrain from speaking about into the merits of a document that had been tabled, 583.

Members should not abuse the precedents of the House by quoting documents extensively, 1650, 3012, 3013, 3014, 10872.

Members should identify documents from which they quote, 3012, 3260, 3541, 6910, 7800, 9356.

If members quote from publicly available documents, only brief quotations are permissible, 3012, 6888, 6889, 6910.

The member with the call was directed to show a document from which he was quoting to another member, 3013.

Members should indicate when they are quoting, 3694.

A member was advised that if he was reading from a legal opinion he should seek leave to incorporate it, 6969.

A member was asked if he was quoting from a document, 7568, 8124.

The purpose of debate is to hear the views of members, not the views of other people, Members may paraphrase the views of other people in support of their views. Alternatively, they may ask that documents be incorporated, or may seek leave to table them, 8124.

The purpose of the adjournment debate is not to read documents onto the record, and members should curtail their quotations, 8963, 10714.

It is proper for members to read onto the record letters or quotations that are not lengthy. The Chair suggested that lengthy quotations would be better referred to by the member, and leave sought to incorporate them in Hansard, 9356.

The Chair stated that this guidance was given to members on basis that Parliament exists to receive the thoughts and comments of members, not of other people, although members are entitled to draw on the views and comments of others to support their own views. Members are not primarily to record the views of other people, 9357.

Egan v. Willis and Cahill
The President informed the House that a statement of claim had been issued by the Hon. M. R. Egan against the President and the Usher of the Black Rod claiming unlawful trespass to the person of the plaintiff. The President advised the House that he had arranged for a firm of solicitors to act on behalf of the defendants to the proceedings, and that the proceedings had been instituted as thk most expeditious and convenient means of having the powers of the Legislative Council to order the production of documents determined by the courts, 827.

The President tabled a copy of the judgment of the Court of Appeal delivered on 29 November 1996, 6819.

The President reminded the House of the order of the House of 2 May 1996 that the Treasurer attend in his place and table certain documents, and that on 14 May 1996 the House resolved that the order be postponed until such time as the legal proceedings had been decided. In view of the court judgment handed down on 29 November 1996, the Chair called on the Treasurer to attend in his place to explain, 6822.

The Chair announced receipt of service of a copy of an application dated 2 December 1996 for special leave to appeal to the High Court of Australia from the judgment of the Court of Appeal of 29 November 1996, 6890.

Interjections, interruptions and disorder:
Conversation
The level of conversation in the Chamber and galleries was too high, 10507.

The Chair had difficulty hearing a member over the noise and conversation in the Chamber, 8295.

PRESIDENT (THE HON. MAX FREDERICK WILLIS) (continued):

Conversation (continued):
Members who wish to converse should do so outside the Chamber, 343, 10507.

Interjection
A member should not engage in interrogatories with the member with the call, 220.

Constant interjection makes it difficult for the member with the call to keep comments relevant to the motion, 584.

Members should refrain from interjecting, 3014, 8171, 8910, 10359, 10360, 11335.

If members interjecting wish to contribute to the debate, they should seek the call, 3338.

As the House was debating a serious matter, and the Leader of the Opposition had been heard in silence on the matter, the Chair entreated members to afford the same courtesy to the Leader of the House and allow his speech to be delivered uninterrupted by interjection, 5948.

A member was directed to hold his comments until he was given the call and to listen in silence, 7811.

Interjection makes it difficult for the Chair and Hansard to hear the proceedings, 8527.

Order and decorum
The member with the call is entitled to proceed uninterrupted, 3265.

Members should not converse from inside the Chamber with people outside the parameters of the Chamber, 4071, 8776.

A member who had contributed to the adjournment debate was directed to contain her comments, or to leave the Chamber, 4098.

Members were reminded to listen in silence to a personal explanation, 5205.

Personal explanations are serious matters that should be heard in silence, 5205, 6982.

It is grossly discourteous to interrupt a member making a personal explanation, 5513.

The reading of newspapers in the Chamber is disorderly, 6101.

PRESIDENT (THE HON. MAX FREDERICK WILLIS) (continued):

Order and decorum (continued):
Chatter makes it enormously difficult for the Chair to hear the proceedings, 6909.

The level of discussion and interjection was too high and members wishing to engage in social discourse were directed to do so outside the Chamber, 6994.

People in the public gallery are not permitted to applaud or to make any comment, 10328.

People in the public gallery are guests of the Parliament, 11037.

Points of order
As the Chair had ruled on a point of order, there should be no further debate on the issue, 6983.

Question time
As the House was debating a serious matter, and the Leader of the Opposition had been heard in silence on the matter, the Chair entreated members to afford the same courtesy to the Leader of the House and allow his speech to be delivered uninterrupted by interjection, 5948.

A member who had contributed to the adjournment debate was directed to contain her comments, or to leave the Chamber, 4098.

Members were reminded to listen in silence to a personal explanation, 5205.

Personal explanations are serious matters that should be heard in silence, 5205, 6982.

It is grossly discourteous to interrupt a member making a personal explanation, 5513.

The reading of newspapers in the Chamber is disorderly, 6101.

Question time is for questions and answers, not a process of interrogatories, 179, 3670, 6997.

There was too much interjection, 431, 5507, 7578, 10845.

There was too much audible conversation or chatter in the Chamber, 1309, 4144.

Members should listen to Ministers' answers in silence, 1537, 3672, 7793.

Conversation and interjection makes it difficult for Hansard to report the proceedings, 1537, 1543, 3111, 4026, 4027, 4945, 6231.

It is difficult for the Chair to hear questions and answers over conversation and interjection, 1543, 4236, 4945, 6231, 6784.

Ministers were directed to answer questions and not respond to interjections, 4143.

Question time is not designed for intimate conversations across the Chamber, 4832.

Ministers need no assistance from honourable members to answer questions, 5725, 10216.

As the level of interjection was high a Minister was asked to repeat the last part of the answer, 6227.
Council Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

PRESIDENT (THE HON. MAX FREDERICK WILLIS) (continued):

Question time (continued): Puerile exchanges across the Chamber while Ministers are answering questions are unacceptable, 7381.

Members who were disorderly would be named by the Chair, 7698.

Interjections are disorderly and the Chair was becoming intolerant of hectoring, 7265.

Question time is not an opportunity for members to engage in a personal slanging match, 7797.

The level of background noise in the House and in the President's Gallery was too high, 9331.

Members who did not cease interjecting would be called to order, 10845.

The President's Gallery:
Those in the President's gallery were advised that it is not a venue for gossip and chatter, 1204, 3723.

The Chair expressed displeasure with the amount of noise that emanated from the President's gallery. If ministerial advisers use the gallery as a gathering place for chatter the gallery will be cleared, 6475, 10507.

The Chair reminded the House of a warning given earlier that day about the intolerable level of chatter in the President's gallery, 6494.

Member removed:
In accordance with Standing Order 262 the Hon. M. R. Egan was suspended from the services of the House for the remainder of that day’s sitting. The Usher of the Black Rod was directed to escort the member from the precincts of the Parliament. The member declined to accompany the Usher of the Black Rod. The President advised the House that he had been informed by the Usher of the Black Rod that the member had defied the resolution of the House. The President left the Chair until the ringing of a long bell, 712.

Notices of motions:
In view of a resolution of the House, the Chair directed that a notice of motion be removed from the business paper, 5988.

PRESIDENT (THE HON. MAX FREDERICK WILLIS) (continued):

Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions:
A member offended by a remark made by another member may seek to have the remark withdrawn, 344, 8295.

If a member wishes to correct the record, he has the right to do so by way of a personal explanation at the appropriate time, 1777.

The Leader of the Government was asked to use a more suitable expression than the one he had used, 2604.

A member was directed to withdraw a comment made in relation to the contribution by another member to parliamentary committee proceedings, 5302.

Verballing is not contrary to the standing orders. However, if a member believes he had been verballed, other procedures are at his disposal, 6496.

Remarks complained of were not offensive, 8171, 8671, 10644.

Members may complain about allegedly offensive remarks made in relation to themselves, but not those directed at other members. 8171.

Expressions required to be withdrawn: “A really stupid member”, 8926; “Boofhead”, 11174.

Unless a member wishes to call for the Hansard record, the tradition of the House is to accept a member's explanation about words complained of, namely, that they were not directed to the member who made the complaint, 8671.

The Chair noted the implication in a statement that a member had taken steps to avoid duty to his country. As the comment was offensive, the Chair directed that the remark be withdrawn, 8929.

There would not be a repetition in the upper House of behaviour that occurred the day before in the other place. The Chair had not heard a member say words complained of but, if the member had said them, the Chair asked her to withdraw without reservation, 9499.

A member is entitled to quote from an article from the print media, provided that he does not associate himself with an accusation if it is disparaging of or reflecting on a member of the other House, in which case the member is restricted to doing so by way of substantive motion, 10680.

PRESIDENT (The Hon. MAX FREDERICK WILLIS) (continued):

Offensive and objectionable remarks, imputations and aspersions (continued):
Members should not make allegations of criminality against other members, 10681.

It is improper for a member to allege directly that a member of Parliament is guilty of a criminal act. However, the member is at liberty to bring to the attention of the House that which may have been written in a newspaper, 10681.

Members should not make personal attacks against other members, 10716.

Parliamentary officers:
Resignation of Clerk-Assistant (Committees), Ms Giselle Blanche Dawson, 15
Appointment of Clerk-Assistant (Committees) and Usher of the Black Rod, Mr Warren Cameron Cahill, 15
Resignation of Editor of Debates, Mr Robin Arthur Dennis, 15
Appointment of Editor of Debates, Miss Norma Jennifer Ward, 16

Personal explanations:
Members should address the issue, 176.

Members should confine explanations to how they were misrepresented, and by whom, and to correcting the misrepresentation, 6982.

The Chair reminded members of a ruling of President Johnson on 22 February 1986 in relation to personal explanations, 6982.

It is in order for a member to make a personal explanation relating to reflections made on that member by sources outside the Parliament, 6983.

Members may make personal explanations about a reflection made on them by sources outside the Parliament, but only if the representation relates to their performance as members of Parliament, 6996.

Should a member assert that something said by another member misrepresents him, he has the right to seek to make a personal explanation, 8295.

Petitions:
Pursuant to Standing Order 40 a petition was ruled out of order as it reflected on a decision already taken by the House, 10451.
Council Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

PRESIDENT (The Hon. MAX FREDERICK WILLIS) (continued):

Points of order (continued):
Only the member who is vilified may take a point of order, or proceed by way of other forms of the House, 6835.

The Chair beseeched members not to take unnecessary points of order, 8667.

The Chair having ruled on a point of order, and having ruled a question out of order, reminded a member of the opportunity to move dissent from the ruling, should the member wish to do so, 9329.

Precincts of the Parliament:
A point of order was taken in relation to the removal of an honourable member from the precincts of the Parliament, which it was contended had not been defined. The President ruled that in the absence of authority or a direction of the House to the contrary, he had taken the view that Standing Order 262 was reasonably interpretable to mean the precincts of the House. 712.

Procedure:
If a member intends to seek leave to have matter incorporated, he should not read at length from the material to be incorporated, 341.

The official record of the Parliament shows that an amendment had been ruled to be inadmissible. Therefore, the motion before the House was a valid motion, 590.

On the request of an honourable member, parts of a motion were put seriatim, 590, 3120.

If a Minister wishes to amend a motion relating to the adjournment of consideration of bills, he should do so in the appropriate manner, 716.

A motion for adjournment of debate on a bill until the next session of Parliament was ruled out of order, 3295.

The Chair ruled that the clock be stopped while the House considered whether leave would be granted to a member to table documents during the adjournment debate, 6537.

The procedures of the House do not provide for points of information, 6538.

Only one voice is required for leave not to be granted, 6538.

Questions without notice:
Form
Questions ruled in order, 427, 1206, 4453, 5112, 8778, 9326.

Questions ruled out of order, 1417, 8268, 8380, 8387, 8667, 9329, 9495.

Members were directed to ask their questions, 1080, 2979, 4134, 4554, 8783.

A question was ruled in order, although it did not come within the guidelines, 1207.

Production of papers:
A point of order was taken that the House had no power constitutionally to order the production of documents and, therefore, it was not competent for the House to proceed with a motion of contempt. The President had regard to opinions of Solicitor General Mason dated 3 May 1994 and 19 December 1995, together with an opinion of Mr Bret Walker, SC, of 10 November 1995, together with rulings of former Presiding Officers, and ruled that there was no point of order, that it was perfectly within the powers of the House to call for the documents pursuant to the standing orders, or inherently, 706.

The President informed the House that a statement of claim had been issued by the Hon. M. R. Egan against the President and the Usher of the Black Rod claiming unlawful trespass to the person of the plaintiff. The President advised the House that he had arranged for a firm of solicitors to act on behalf of the defendants to the proceedings, and that the proceedings had been instituted as the most expeditious and convenient means of having the powers of the Legislative Council to order the production of documents determined by the courts, 827.

Questions without notice (continued):

Members were asked to hand up copies of the questions, if available in written form, in order that the Chair could rule on admissibility, 1776, 4453, 5112.

Although it is not competent for members to canvass the findings of a committee in relation to a matter upon which it has not reported, it is competent to ask of a committee chairman questions relating to the operations of the committee in a mechanical sense. A committee chairman is at liberty to answer a question in whichever manner the chairman sees fit, 1776.

Lengthy and detailed questions should be placed on notice, 2493.

Questions ruled in order and not offending against the rule of anticipation, 5112, 8667, 8778.

Members’ questions should comply with standing orders 29 and 30 and should relate to the public affairs of New South Wales, 8535.

Question time is not a medium through which members may seek the opinion of a Minister on matters that do not relate to public affairs, 8535.

Question ruled out of order as offending against the rule of anticipation, 9327.

Ministers cannot be expected to give detailed information in response to a question without notice, 9501.

The Chair has discretion in matters relating to anticipation of debate. However, as it was not known when a matter on the notice paper would be likely to proceed, a member was permitted to continue with a question, 7271.

The Chair referred a member to page 325 of Erskine May, where it is stated that matters relating to members of either House of Parliament, or to judges of superior courts, can proceed only by way of substantive motion, 8380.

Whether a question breached the rule of anticipation depended on the way the question was phrased, and the preamble to it, 8667.

Members were directed to carefully consider the structure of questions, 8667, in order that they might be shorter, 11001.
Council Legislative: Rulings, Observations and Opinions of the Chair (continued):

PRESIDENT (THE HON. MAX FREDERICK WILLIS) (continued):

Questions without notice (continued):

Minister’s Latitude (continued):
In answering a question it is improper and contrary to standing orders to reflect on a decision of the House, 5392.

Ministers should act with discretion in giving answers, 5724.

A Minister could curtail his answer by asking the member to put the question on notice, 7003.

Ministers were directed to answer questions, not to reply to interjections, 7264, 8923

Procedure
Members were directed to ask their questions, 1203, 3576.

Members were directed to ask questions and not to make speeches, 1203.

Ministers need no assistance to answer questions, 4134, 8920.

If a Minister wishes to elaborate on a previous answer, he should provide a supplementary answer at the end of question time, 9173.

Supplementary
In order to establish that a question is a supplementary question, the substance of the supplementary question must relate to the substance of the original question, 3575.

There was sufficient nexus between one question and another for the subsequent question to be in order as a supplementary question, 3576.

Questions ruled not to be supplementary but the same question, 6231, 8387, 11175.

A question was ruled not to be a supplementary question. However, the Chair left it to the Minister to decide whether to answer it, 7697.

Questions that reiterate part of the question originally asked are not supplementary questions. A supplementary question should be a new question relative to the issue but not a repetition of the original question, either in full or in part, and the Chair stated that it would rule accordingly in future, 10909.

PRESIDENT (THE HON. MAX FREDERICK WILLIS) (continued):

Relevance:

Members comments should be relevant, 219.

A member’s comments were ruled out of order as they were not relevant to the provisions of the bill being debated, 10185.

Tabling of documents:
It is in order to table an entire document, but not selected parts of it, 584.

A member was asked if a document sought to be tabled was publicly available, 6537.

A member was asked whether a document he sought to table was publicly available, and how many pages it comprised, 6663.

Unanswered questions upon notice:
It has been a longstanding tradition of the House that questions upon notice are never answered at the time they are asked, 6925.
