Clerk's foreword

In 1996 the Legislative Council for the first time published a Register of Legislative Council committee reports and joint committee reports. Since that time the Legislative Council has experienced a major expansion of committee activity, to the extent that it currently has one of the most active committee systems of any Australian jurisdiction. Joint Committees have also increased in number and activity.

This new updated register includes the large number of reports tabled over the last decade of committee work, together with the original record of reports from 1988, when the modern committee system began to emerge in NSW. The register is also available in searchable form on the Parliament's website.

All Legislative Council reports produced since 2000, as well as some earlier reports, are available on the Legislative Council Committees section of the Parliament's website, www.parliament.nsw.gov.au. Reports published prior to 2000 not on the website are held in the Parliamentary Library, or arrangements can be made by calling the Committee office on (02) 9230 2898.

I would like to acknowledge the work of Abigail Groves and Christine Nguyen who compiled and produced this document.
