188R Dealing with seized things

- (1) The Secretary, when seizing a thing at premises under this part, must give the person apparently in charge of the premises a written receipt for the thing seized.
- (2) The Secretary may keep the seized thing for evidence in court proceedings until—
  - (a) the court in which the proceedings are commenced orders its return, or
  - (b) if no order is made—the completion of the proceedings, including an appeal.
- (3) A record may be kept under this section if, within a reasonable time—
  - (a) a copy of the record is made, and
  - (b) the Secretary certifies that the copy is a true copy, and
  - (c) the person from whom the record was seized is given the certified copy.
- (4) The certified copy is, as evidence, of equal validity to the record.

188S Power to destroy seized things

- (1) The Secretary may destroy or dispose of a thing if—
  - (a) the thing was seized under this division, and
  - (b) the thing is no longer required as evidence in proceedings.
- (2) The Secretary must not destroy a thing under this division unless—
  - (a) before destroying the thing, the Secretary gives written notice of the proposed destruction to the owner or person in charge of the thing, or
  - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the owner or person in charge of the thing has already been given written notice of the proposed destruction.
- (3) Notice must be given at least 7 days before the thing is destroyed.
- (4) A requirement to give notice does not apply to the destruction of a thing if—

- (a) there does not appear to be an individual immediately in control of the thing, and the owner or person in charge cannot be located after making reasonable inquiries, and
  - (b) the Secretary considers that, in the circumstances, the thing must be destroyed without notice to the owner or person in charge.
- (5) This section does not apply to the destruction of a thing that has been forfeited to the Secretary.
- (6) If the Secretary decides to destroy or dispose of a thing—
- (a) the thing immediately becomes the property of the State, and
  - (b) compensation is not payable for—
    - (i) the transfer of ownership, or
    - (ii) the destruction or disposal of the thing, and
  - (c) duty is not payable for the transfer, and
  - (d) the Secretary must, as soon as practicable, tell the person who owned the thing immediately before its seizure about the destruction or disposal, unless—
    - (i) the Secretary is not able to find the person after making reasonable inquiries, or
    - (ii) it is otherwise impracticable or unreasonable to tell the person.
- (7) This section does not limit the Secretary's power to destroy a thing in the exercise of another power for an authorised purpose.

Division 5 Remedial actions

- (2) The power to examine and inspect a thing includes a power to use reasonable force to break open or otherwise access a thing, including a floor or wall containing the thing.
- (3) The power to test a thing includes a power to destructively test a thing, or a sample of a thing, if that is a reasonable test in the circumstances.

177L Powers of Secretary—opening or demolishing building work

- (1) The Secretary may open up, cut open or demolish building work if the Secretary reasonably believes it is necessary because there is, or there is likely to be, a contravention of section 109.
- (2) The power to open up, cut open or demolish building work may be exercised by an appropriately qualified person at the direction of the Secretary.

177M Powers of Secretary—seizure

- (1) The Secretary may—
  - (a) seize a thing the Secretary has reasonable grounds to believe is connected with a contravention of section 109, and
  - (b) move a seized thing from the place where it is seized or leave it at the place where it is seized and take reasonable action to restrict access to the thing, and
  - (c) direct the occupier of the premises where a thing is seized to keep the thing—
    - (i) at the premises, or
    - (ii) at another place under the control of the occupier.
- (2) The power to seize a thing connected with an offence includes a power to seize—
  - (a) a thing in relation to which the offence has been committed, and
  - (b) a thing that will afford evidence of the commission of the offence, and
  - (c) a thing that was used for the purpose of committing the offence.
- (3) In this section, a reference to an offence includes a reference to an offence that there are reasonable grounds to believe has been committed.

177N Powers of Secretary—other powers

The Secretary may do anything that, in the Secretary's opinion, is reasonably necessary to be done for an authorised purpose.

Subdivision 3 Miscellaneous

177O Provision of assistance to Secretary

- (1) The Secretary may direct a person to provide reasonable assistance, as specified by the Secretary, if the direction—
  - (a) is for the purposes of the Secretary exercising functions under this division in relation to premises, and
  - (b) is given to—
    - (i) the owner or occupier of the premises, or
    - (ii) if the premises are not a public place—a person on the premises.
- (2) The direction may be given—

- (a) orally to the person, or
  - (b) by written notice given to the person.
- (3) A person must not fail to comply with a direction under this section.

  - (ii) for a continuing offence—10 penalty units for each day the offence continues.

Division 4 Seizure and destruction

177R Dealing with seized things

- (1) The Secretary, when seizing a thing at premises under this part, must give the person apparently in charge of the premises a written receipt for the thing seized.
- (2) The Secretary may keep the seized thing for evidence in court proceedings until—
  - (a) the court in which the proceedings are commenced orders its return, or
  - (b) if no order is made—the completion of the proceedings, including an appeal.
- (3) A record may be kept under this section if, within a reasonable time—
  - (a) a copy of the record is made, and

- (b) the Secretary certifies that the copy is a true copy, and
  - (c) the person from whom the record was seized is given the certified copy.
- (4) The certified copy is, as evidence, of equal validity to the record.

177S Power to destroy seized things

- (1) The Secretary may destroy or dispose of a thing if—
  - (a) the thing was seized under this division, and
  - (b) the thing is no longer required as evidence in proceedings.
- (2) The Secretary must not destroy a thing under this division unless—
  - (a) before destroying the thing, the Secretary gives written notice of the proposed destruction to the owner or person in charge of the thing, or
  - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the owner or person in charge of the thing has already been given written notice of the proposed destruction.
- (3) Notice must be given at least 7 days before the thing is destroyed.
- (4) A requirement to give notice does not apply to the destruction of a thing if—
  - (a) there does not appear to be an individual immediately in control of the thing, and the owner or person in charge cannot be located after making reasonable inquiries, and
  - (b) the Secretary considers that, in the circumstances, the thing must be destroyed without notice to the owner or person in charge.
- (5) This section does not apply to the destruction of a thing that has been forfeited to the Secretary.
- (6) If the Secretary decides to destroy or dispose of a thing—
  - (a) the thing immediately becomes the property of the State, and
  - (b) compensation is not payable for—
    - (i) the transfer of ownership, or
    - (ii) the destruction or disposal of the thing, and
  - (c) duty is not payable for the transfer, and
  - (d) the Secretary must, as soon as practicable, tell the person who owned the thing immediately before its seizure about the destruction or disposal, unless—
    - (i) the Secretary is not able to find the person after making reasonable inquiries, or
    - (ii) it is otherwise impracticable or unreasonable to tell the person.
- (7) This section does not limit the Secretary's power to destroy a thing in the exercise of another power for an authorised purpose.

Division 5 Remedial actions

177T Undertakings

- (1) An association may enter into an undertaking under this section.
- (2) Before entering into an undertaking, the association must approve the undertaking by special resolution.

- (3) The Secretary may accept a written undertaking given by an association that the association will take action to do the following in relation to a breach of a duty under section 109(1) or (2)—
  - (a) carry out maintenance and repair work,
  - (b) renew or replace fixtures or fittings.
- (4) A person who contravenes an undertaking accepted by the Secretary commits an offence.

- (1) An association that enters into an undertaking may, with the written agreement of the Secretary—
  - (a) vary the undertaking, or
  - (b) withdraw the undertaking.
- (2) Before varying or withdrawing an undertaking under subsection (1), the association must approve the variation or withdrawal by special resolution.
- (3) The Secretary may—
  - (a) vary an undertaking, with the written agreement of the association, or
  - (b) withdraw the Secretary's acceptance of an undertaking, by written notice served on the association.
- (4) Before agreeing to vary an undertaking under subsection (3)(a), the association must approve the variation by special resolution.
- (5) The provisions of an undertaking may not be varied to provide for a different subject matter.
- (6) An undertaking ceases to have effect if—
  - (a) the undertaking is withdrawn by the association, or
  - (b) the acceptance of the undertaking is withdrawn by the Secretary.
- (7) In this section—
undertaking means an undertaking under section 177T.

177V Applying for orders to restrain or remedy breaches of duty

- (1) The Secretary may apply to the Tribunal for an order to remedy or restrain a breach of a duty under section 109(1) or (2).
- (2) An order may be made without the Secretary being required to show a likelihood of damage.
- (3) The Tribunal may grant an interim order pending the determination of the application if, in the Tribunal's opinion, it is desirable to grant the order.
- (4) The Tribunal must not require the Secretary or another person, as a condition of granting an interim order, to give an undertaking as to damages.
- (5) The Tribunal may make the orders the Tribunal thinks fit to remedy or restrain a breach if satisfied a breach—
  - (a) has been committed, or

- (b) will be committed unless restrained by an order of the Tribunal.

177W Complaints and investigations

- (1) The Secretary may, whether or not the Secretary has received a complaint, investigate a breach or possible breach of a duty under section 109.
- (2) The Secretary may require that a complaint made to the Secretary about a matter referred to in subsection (1) be in a form approved by the Secretary.
- (3) However, the Secretary is not required to investigate a matter.
- (4) This section does not limit other powers the Secretary may have under another Act or law to receive a complaint or investigate a matter.

Division 6 Compliance notices

177X Secretary may give compliance notice

- (1) The Secretary may give an association a notice (a compliance notice) if the Secretary reasonably believes the association has breached a duty under section 109(1) or (2).
- (2) A compliance notice must not be given in relation to work for which a building work rectification order, within the meaning of the Residential Apartment Buildings (Compliance and Enforcement Powers) Act 2020, may be issued.

177Y Elements of compliance notice

- (1) A compliance notice must state the reasons for the giving of the notice.
- (2) The compliance notice may do the following—
  - (a) require the association to take action, specified in the notice, to remedy the breach,
  - (b) describe the standard of work required to remedy the breach,
  - (c) require work to be carried out by an appropriately qualified or licensed professional,
  - (d) require that a person make good a building or work that has been damaged as a result of the person carrying out building work,
  - (e) require the provision of documentary evidence to demonstrate compliance with the notice.
- (3) A compliance notice given in relation to a dispute may—
  - (a) specify conditions about the payment of money due under a contract for the work, and
  - (b) require the conditions to be complied with by the party who raised the dispute before the other requirements of the notice are complied with.
- (4) The compliance notice may specify the period in which the association must comply with the notice, including multiple periods to allow for different stages for compliance.

177Z Amendment and revocation of compliance notice

The Secretary may amend a compliance notice if the association given the notice agrees to the amendment.

177ZA Revocation of compliance notice

- (1) A compliance notice is revoked if the notice has been complied with.

- (2) The Secretary must, when a compliance notice has been complied with, give a written notice to the association given the compliance notice confirming the revocation of the compliance notice.
- (3) The failure of the Secretary to give the written notice does not affect the revocation of the compliance notice.

177ZB Offence for failure to comply with compliance notice

An association given a compliance notice must not fail to comply with the notice.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) 200 penalty units, and
- (b) for a continuing offence—20 penalty units for each day the offence continues.
