[3]    Section 25(3) and (4)

Insert after section 25(2), before the note—

- (3) The role of a Secretary of a Department includes, but is not limited to, the following—
  - (a) policy adviser—acting as principal official policy adviser to the Minister or Ministers to whom the Secretary is responsible,
  - (b) manager—ensuring the delivery of the Government’s policies and programs and collaborating with other agencies across the government sector to achieve the Government’s stated outcomes,
  - (c) leader—providing stewardship within the Department and, in partnership with other Secretaries and the Public Service Commissioner, across the government sector,
  - (d) employer—exercising the employer functions of Government under this Act,

Note— See section 26.

- (e) other roles conferred or imposed on the Secretary by or under this or another Act or another law.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (1), the responsibilities of a Secretary of a Department also include the following—
  - (a) to manage the affairs of the Department efficiently, effectively and ethically,
  - (b) to provide frank and fearless advice to the Minister or Ministers to whom the Secretary is responsible about matters relating to the Department and its related agencies,
  - (c) to implement measures to ensure the Department complies with the law,
  - (d) to provide leadership, strategic direction and a focus on results for the Department,
  - (e) to maintain clear lines of communication with the heads of the Department's related agencies,
  - (f) to engage with stakeholders, particularly in relation to the core activities of the Department,
  - (g) to ensure that the Department has a strong strategic policy capability that can consider complex, whole-of-government issues,
  - (h) to assist Ministers in fulfilling Ministerial accountability obligations to Parliament in providing factual information in relation to the operation and administration of the Department,
  - (i) to accept and take other responsibilities conferred or imposed on the Secretary by or under this or another Act or another law.

[4] Section 26 Employer functions of Secretaries of Departments

- (2) A GSSE who intends to accept an offer of employment in the private sector must, if the employment directly relates to any of the GSSE's current role or responsibilities, or a role or responsibilities held during the previous 2 years, first seek the guidance of the Commissioner.
- (3) The guidance may include, but is not limited to, advice regarding—
  - (a) the management of actual and potential conflicts of interest,
  - (b) the use of information or knowledge gained by the GSSE in the course of the GSSE's employment.

[8] Section 86A

Insert after section 86—

86A Oversight of Commissioner's functions by Joint Committee

- (1) The Joint Committee has the following functions under this Act—
  - (a) to monitor and review the exercise by the Commissioner of the Commissioner's functions under this Act (the GSE functions),
  - (b) to report to both Houses of Parliament, with comments as it thinks fit, on matters concerning the Commissioner or connected with the exercise of the Commissioner's GSE functions to which, in the opinion of the Joint Committee, the attention of Parliament should be directed,
  - (c) to examine each annual and other report of the Commissioner and report to both Houses of Parliament on any matter appearing in, or arising out of, one of those reports,
  - (d) to recommend to both Houses of Parliament changes to the GSE functions of the Commissioner that the Joint Committee thinks desirable,
  - (e) to inquire into any question in connection with the GSE functions which is referred to it by both Houses of Parliament, and report to both Houses on that question.
- (2) Nothing in this section authorises the Joint Committee—
  - (a) to investigate a matter relating to any particular conduct, or

- (b) to reconsider any decision to investigate, not to investigate or to discontinue investigation of any particular matter, or
  - (c) to reconsider the determinations, findings, recommendations or other decisions of the Commissioner in relation to any particular matter.
- (3) The provisions of the Ombudsman Act 1974, Part 4A apply in relation to the Joint Committee's functions under this Act in the same way as the provisions apply in relation to the Joint Committee's functions under that Act.
- (4) In this section—
investigate includes inquire into.
