(Paper No. 136)

*751 TRANSPORT AND ROADS—TRAFFIC STUDIES—Mr D'Adam asked the Special Minister of State, Minister for the Public Service and Employee Relations, Aboriginal Affairs, and the Arts, Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Transport and Roads—

- (1) What traffic studies were undertaken in regards to the number of B-Double and heavy vehicles accessing the Metro site on Edinburgh Road, Marrickville?
- (2) Were adjustments made to the phasing of traffic light control at the intersection of Unwins Bridge Road/May Street and Bedwin Road, St Peters?
 - (a) Did any traffic light control adjustments at this intersection give additional phasing of lights to allow more vehicles on Bedwin Road to access May Street over city bound traffic on Unwins Bridge Road?
- (3) Were any adjustments made to traffic light controls at the intersection of May Street and the Princes Highway at St Peters to accommodate long vehicles turning right onto the Princes Highway?

Answer—

I am advised:

1- 2. The development and approval of a Construction Traffic Management Plan is a requirement of the planning conditions for both the Sydney Metro City and Southwest Project and the WestConnex Project. Once these Plans are approved by the Department of Planning, Industry and Environment they are made publicly available on the Department of Planning, Industry and Environment's website.

3. The phasing of traffic lights throughout Greater Sydney is actively managed through the Sydney Coordinated Adaptive Traffic System. Further information is available at www.scats.com.au.

*752 PREMIER—AUSGRID REDUNDANCIES—Revd Mr Nile asked the Special Minister of State, Minister for the Public Service and Employee Relations, Aboriginal Affairs, and the Arts, Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Premier—

- (1) Is it true that 200 workers are going to be made redundant this year from Ausgrid, followed by another 500 next year?
- (2) What action is the government taking to assist these sacked workers?

Answer—

When the lease of Ausgrid took place in December 2016, employees became private sector employees in the Federal jurisdiction and transferred to employment with the new operator.

The legislation under which Ausgrid was transacted, the Electricity Network Assets (Authorised Transactions) Act 2015 (NSW), sets out the requirements for Ausgrid to maintain a minimum number of full-time equivalent employees up to 30 June 2020.

Ausgrid employees have the protection of their agreement, Ausgrid Enterprise Agreement 2018, which includes terms covering redundancy, redeployment and salary maintenance.

Employment issues are a matter for Ausgrid.

*753 WATER, PROPERTY AND HOUSING—EXPENDITURE FOR THE LAND AND HOUSING CORPORATION—Mr Buttigieg asked the Minister for Mental Health, Regional Youth and Women representing the Minister for Water, Property and Housing—

- (1) What was the capital expenditure for the Land and Housing Corporation in 2018- 2019?
- (2) What is the proposed capital expenditure for the Land and Housing Corporation for 2019-2020?
- (3) What was the operating expenditure for the Land and Housing Corporation in 2018-2019?
- (4) What is the proposed operating expenditure for the Land and Housing Corporation for 2019-2020?
- (5) What was the total expenditure on staffing and employment for the Land and Housing Corporation in 2018-2019?
- (6) What is the proposed total expenditure on staffing and employment for the Land and Housing Corporation for 2019-2020?

Answer—

I am advised that: •

- Response to questions 1, 3 and 5 can be seen on the 2018-19 Annual Report of the Department of Family and Community Services which is expected to be released by the end of November 2019.
- Response to questions 2, 4 and 6 LAHC operates as an 'off budget' agency, and as such does not provide forward financial estimates. As such this information will only be available following the release of the 2019-20 Annual report of the Department of Planning Industry and Environment, next year.

*754 POLICE AND EMERGENCY SERVICES—MAILING ADDRESS OF THE NSW FIREARMS REGISTRY—Mr Borsak asked the Minister for Education and Early Childhood Learning representing the Minister for Police and Emergency Services—

In relation to the New South Wales Firearms Registry mailing address being moved from the Registry at Murwillumbah to the Registry at Parramatta:

- (1) Will the delivery of mail to the Police Document Transmission Centre increase mail delivery times?
 - (a) If so, by how much?
- (2) Will mail received at the Police Document Transmission Centre at Parramatta be deemed "received by the Registry," for the purposes of licence and permit renewals?
- (3) Will mail sent out from the Registry also be sent through the Police Document Transmission Centre at Parramatta?
- (4) Will additional time be allocated to firearm owners for responses where there is a statutory deadline in place e.g. advising the Registry of a change of address?

Answer—

I am advised:

1. No.

2-4. All mail posted to the Document Transmission Centre in Parramatta is digitised and delivered on the same day to the Firearms Registry. Those documents not able to be digitised, such as parcels and Notices of Disposals and Notices of Acquisitions, will be delivered within 24 hours. Non-digitised items are triaged and given priority upon receipt at the Firearms Registry. The items are deemed to have been received by the Firearms Registry on the day they are received at the Document Transmission Centre.
