*873 COUNTER TERRORISM AND CORRECTIONS—BULLYING COMPLAINTS IN CORRECTIONS—Ms Jackson asked the Minister for Education and Early Childhood Learning representing the Minister for Counter Terrorism and Corrections—

(1)

- (a) How many complaints or reports of workplace bullying were made by Corrective Services NSW employees in each of the following years?
- (i) 2015
  - (ii) 2016
  - (iii) 2017
  - (iv) 2018
  - (v) 2019
- (b) How many individual Corrective Services NSW employees made a complaint or report of workplace bullying between 2015 and 2019?

Answer—

I am advised:

(1) a-b)

Corrective Services NSW (CSNSW) collects information and data about complaints or reports of bullying through two mechanisms. The Grievance Policy outlines how employees should address workplace grievances. This includes informal resolution as well as formal means such as conciliation and mediation.

The information provided are claims and reports made through the formal Grievance Policy:

	Total number of reported bullying & harassment claims employees	Number of individual employees
i. 2015	*Not available	Not available
ii. 2016	25	25
iii. 2017	23	23
iv. 2018	28	28
v. 2019	42	42

*In 2015, changes to the way grievances were managed were implemented. Data collected for that year is fragmented.

The number of workers compensation claims by individuals indicating bullying and harassment as the cause of workplace injury for the period 2015-2019 is as follows:

2015	29
2016	27
2017	40
2018	72
2019	62*

*at 2 December 2019

Some individuals raise complaints of bullying and harassment through the Grievance Policy and also submit a workers compensation claim .

1-3. A world class public service reflects the diversity of the community it serves. The NSW Public Service Commission ('the PSC') has conducted extensive research and consultation on the benefits of creating a diverse and inclusive workplace. This research and reports are publicly available on the PSC website and in their annual reports.

4-5. All position descriptions in the NSW public service contain information regarding diversity and inclusion. No job descriptions make mention to sexuality, or link sexuality to performance or work responsibilities.

6-10. The LGBTIQ Network ('the Network') will be managed by the NSW Public Service Commission and will be open and inclusive to all staff.

11-12. It is optional for staff to provide information regarding diversity and inclusion and responses to these questions remain strictly confidential.

13. As the Network is yet to commence, further information is not available.

- (8) What policies of 'Diversity and Inclusion' has the Minister established for heterosexual (H) staff?
- (9) What is the estimated time departmental staff will spend on Network activities (such as the Advisory Committee, counselling services, peer support, special events etc) per annum? Is this on or out of paid work time?
- (10) For jobs with specific public safety responsibilities in the Minister's department, how is it beneficial for staff to be focussed on matters of sexuality?
- (11) Is it mandatory in the Minister's Department for staff to "bring their whole selves to work" (including their sexuality) and how is such coercion administered?
- (12) In (11) above, what consideration is given to the privacy rights of staff who prefer to keep their sexuality out of the workplace, as a private, personal matter irrelevant to their work duties?
- (13) How many staff in the Minister's Department have nominated for Network membership?

Answer—

1-3. A world class public service reflects the diversity of the community it serves. The NSW Public Service Commission ('the PSC') has conducted extensive research and consultation on the benefits of creating a diverse and inclusive workplace. This research and reports are publicly available on the PSC website and in their annual reports.

4-5. All position descriptions in the NSW public service contain information regarding diversity and inclusion.

6-10. The LGBTIQ Network ('the Network') will be managed by the NSW Public Service Commission and will be open and inclusive to all staff.

11-12. It is optional for staff to provide information regarding diversity and inclusion and responses to these questions remain strictly confidential.

13. As the Network is yet to commence, further information is not available.

*928 CUSTOMER SERVICE—SPECIALIST COST OF LIVING—Ms Moriarty asked the Minister for Finance and Small Business representing the Minister for Customer Service—

- (1) How many specialist cost of living appointments at Service NSW were made by people from culturally and linguistically diverse communities?
- (2) How many interpreters are available to assist people from culturally and linguistically diverse communities who attend specialist cost of living appointments at Service NSW?
- (3) How do people book a specialist cost of living appointment at Service NSW if they are unable to use or access the internet?

Answer—

(1) Service NSW does not capture this data. Cost of Living appointments are available for all customers, including those from culturally and linguistically diverse communities.

(2) During the booking process, customer may elect to receive interpreter assistance in various community languages through TIS (Translation Interpreting Services). The Cost of Living specialist will arrange the service prior to the appointment. During the Cost of Living appointment, the customer interacts with the interpreter over the phone.

*937 TREASURER—COAL ROYALTY REVENUE COLLECTED AND RETURNED TO LGAS—Mr Latham asked the Minister for Finance and Small Business representing the Treasurer—

- (1) How much coal royalty revenue did the Government collect from the Singleton and Muswellbrook Local Government Areas (LGAs) in 2018/19?
- (2) How much of the revenue collected in question 1 above was returned to those LGAs in infrastructure funding?

Answer—

- (1) In 2018-19, the NSW government collected $1.1 billion in coal royalties from mines in the Singleton and Muswellbrook Local Government Areas (LGAs), accounting for 55 per cent of total coal royalties collected in 2018-19. These estimates include revenue from mines that operate across LGA borders.
- (2) Revenue collected from coal royalties is not hypothecated for infrastructure expenditure and instead goes directly into consolidated revenue. In the 2018-19 Budget, $98.7 million was allocated for transport infrastructure directly to the State electorate of the Upper Hunter for 2018-19, which includes both Singleton and Muswellbrook Local Government Areas. This allocation total does not include funding that provides benefits to multiple electorates including the Upper Hunter.

*943 FINANCE AND SMALL BUSINESS—CWA FUNDING—Ms Moriarty asked the Minister for Finance and Small Business—

- (1) The Country Women's Association (CWA) asked the Government to provide more assistance to small businesses in September, and have now called on the Federal Government for $10 million for drought assistance. Has the Government responded to the request?
- (2) Do you support their call for additional funding from the $10 million?

Answer—

The Government has responded directly to the Country Women's Association of NSW regarding drought support for regional small businesses and appreciates the important contribution the Association is making to drought relief, including through Drought Aid Grants from its Disaster Relief Fund.

The New South Wales Government is investing $2 billion in support for our droughtstricken regions.

As part of this investment the $170 million Drought Stimulus Package is funding shovelready infrastructure projects in regional areas to support local jobs and keep money circulating around regional economies and so benefiting regional small businesses.

Small businesses throughout New South Wales are benefiting from the progressive increase in the payroll tax threshold with nearly 40,000 businesses now up to $8,175 better off per year. By 2021-22 this measure will see $881 million remain in the pockets of regional and small businesses.

The Buy Regional NSW campaign has encouraged metropolitan families to do their Christmas shopping online from regional small businesses. This has been a great success with many of the more than 250 regional businesses featured on the NSW government webpage reporting increased sales following over 367,000 page views.

The Federal Government recently announced, as part of its drought assistance, a new program for small businesses dependent on agriculture with loans worth up to $500,000 that can be used to pay staff, buy equipment and refinance.

The New South Wales Government would welcome further drought relief from the Federal Government including for drought affected regional and small businesses in New South Wales.
