- *705 FAMILIES, COMMUNITIES AND DISABILITY SERVICES—DISABILITY ADVOCACY REVIEW—Ms Sharpe asked the Minister for Finance and Small Business representing the Minister for Families, Communities and Disability Services—
- (1) Given that the Disability Advocacy Review is due to be tabled on Tuesday 31 December 2019, will the Minister confirm that the review will be made public immediately after it has been tabled?
- (2) Given the short time frame for the Disability Advocacy Review and the need for the Government to respond and incorporate any changes to disability advocacy, is the Minister considering rolling over funding for disability advocacy organisations to give time for any changes to be implemented?

Answer—

Pursuant to Section 28(2) of the NSW Ageing and Disability Commissioner Act 2019, if the Ageing and Disability Commissioner includes a recommendation that a report be made public immediately, the Presiding Officer of a House of Parliament may make it public.

The Transitional Advocacy Funding Supplement (TAFS) has been paid to providers to 30 June 2020. The government will consider its response to the Ageing and Disability Commissioner's report once it is submitted in December 2019.

- (1) Given that the Kids Helpline Statistical Report Overview for 2018 indicates that 147,351 out of 284,184 calls to the Kids Helpline in 2018 were answered (around 50%), what happened to the remainder of the calls?
- (a) What are the reasons for the calls going unanswered?
- (2) Of the 147,351 calls answered in 2018, what assessment criteria does the child protection service use in deciding which children/homes/families receive face-to-face caseworker visits?
- (a) What proportion of these calls identified children at risk of significant harm?
- (b) Given that only approximately 20% of the cases receive face-to-face visits, what action was taken regarding the other 80%?
- (c) What action is the government taking to lift the responsiveness of face-to-face visitation proportion?
- (3) Does the Government use non-government welfare and community agencies and caseworkers already in contact with children/families who have sought assistance?
- (a) If so, what proportion of face-to-face visits are handled by:
- (i) government employees?

(ii) welfare workers from the non-government sector?
