

G'Day Anna

In relation to the question on notice in the transcript around identification cards, the Central West JO has provided the following response:

"This feedback came from Canberra Region JO..... My understanding is aligning the RA Act with the Environment Operations Act 1997 to ensure that personnel can do their job effectively, especially in emergencies, making the Act more consistent and useful in real-world situations."

I hope this is of assistance;

Regards

Brad

- Corrections should be limited to verbal inaccuracies (where a word you said has been recorded incorrectly), as per the Legislative Assembly's Standing Order 293.
- Transcripts record oral (spoken) evidence, and they read differently to normal written expression. Do not try and correct sentence structure or refine meaning.
- You can't correct another witness' evidence.

How to clarify a mistake of fact

If you made a mistake of fact (such as mis-quoting a statistic), or you would like to clarify something you said, you will need to write a formal letter to the committee detailing exactly what you would like to correct in your evidence. Be very clear about what exactly you are correcting, and provide page numbers. The letter should be provided separately to your corrected transcript.

If you have any questions about this process, please contact committee staff.

Returning corrected transcripts

If you have any corrections, please mark them on the transcript and return it to Committee staff by email.

If you haven't provided any corrections within two days from the date of this email, I will assume you have no corrections.

Questions taken on notice

If you took any questions on notice during the public hearing, they have been highlighted in the attached extract of the uncorrected transcript of your evidence. Please provide written answers to any questions on notice highlighted within 14 days of the date of this email.

Don't publish your transcript

The transcript of your evidence cannot be published or disclosed unless authorised by the Committee. Unauthorised publications are not protected by parliamentary privilege, and may be contempt of Parliament.

Publication of the full transcript

Once we have received corrections from all witnesses, the full transcript will be published on the Committee's website.

If you have any questions about correcting or reviewing your transcript, please contact committee staff.

Further information about the inquiry can be found on the committee's website (<https://www.parliament.nsw.gov.au/committees/listofcommittees/Pages/committee-details.aspx?pk=323>). There is also a short video that explains what happens after you give evidence at a hearing.

Yours sincerely,
