NOTICE OF MOTION

Mr Secord says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House notes that:
  - (a) North Coast dairy cooperative Norco receives more than 222 million litres of milk a year from 215 farms and exports to new markets in Asia including China, and
  - (b) Norco employs 830 staff and has been a co-operative for more than 110 years on the State's North Coast.

2. That this House:
  - (a) condemns the Liberal-National State Government for terminating its long-running contract with Norco to supply milk to 16 northern New South Wales hospitals,
  - (b) expresses regret that National State MPs have failed to stop the termination of the contract, and
  - (c) calls on the Health Minister the Honourable Brad Hazzard MP to immediately reverse the decision and support New South Wales dairy producers.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Mr Wong says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House acknowledge the findings of the “Rumbling Tummies” report -released by the Foodbank in April this year that investigates child hunger in Australia, and which revealed:
  - (a) more than one in five children in Australia has experienced food insecurity in the last 12 months meaning that it is more likely for a child in Australia, at 22 per cent, to experience food insecurity than it is for an adult, at 15 per cent,
  - (b) one in three, or 32 per cent of, Australian parents living in food insecure households report their children experience not having enough to eat as least once a month because they cannot afford to buy food,
  - (c) one in five parents living in food insecure households say that their children go a whole day each week without eating any fresh food,
  - (d) one in ten, or 9 per cent of, these parents say their children go a whole day each week without eating at all,
  - (e) at least once a week, 18 per cent of children from food insecure households go to school without eating breakfast, and
  - (f) 15 per cent go to school without a packed lunch or lunch money and 11 per cent go to bed without eating dinner.
2. That this House notes that this report confirms that the “cost of living” is the main reason for food insecurity in households with children, and that “bill shock” at 52 per cent, not having enough money in the first place at 44 per cent and housing affordability at 38 per cent being the top three causes.
3. That this House recognise that Foodbank provides 15 million meals a year to more than 600 charities and schools in New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory.

~~Capital Territory~~

4. That this House call for a long-term bipartisan, ~~whole-of-government~~ strategy on food security to provide immediate relief to food insecure households across New South Wales and ~~the Australian Capital Territory~~.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Mr Shoebridge says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House notes that:
  - (a) international media has reported that dozens of unarmed protesters have been killed at the Gaza border by Israeli forces,
  - (b) more than 2,700 protesters were injured, many by IDF officers shooting live bullets into crowds of protesters, and
  - (c) the protests followed the relocation of the United States Embassy to Jerusalem as a way of marking the 70th anniversary of the creation of Israel and the Nakba.
2. That this House recognises that:
  - (a) 70 years ago the Palestinian people had their lands forcibly taken from them, and have since endured dispossession, oppression, bombings and killings, and
  - (b) Nakba Day also known as the Day of the Catastrophe is commemorated on 15 May.
3. That this House notes with concern that:
  - (a) the Australian Government has so far refused to condemn the Israeli state-sanctioned ~~atrocities~~ violence, and
  - (b) the silence of the Australian and other Western Governments empowers those in Israel seeking further violence and further damages the prospects of a just peace where Israel and Palestine can co-exist within <sup>safe and secure</sup> UN recognised borders.
4. That this House recognises the fundamental importance of the right to protest, and in particular the right of the Palestinian people to demand their internationally recognised human rights, including the right of return. self-determination and

NOTICE OF MOTION

Mr Wong says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House congratulate the Special Children Services Centre Inc. (SCSC) who are celebrating their 10th anniversary in 2018, in particular the Committee of Management who invest themselves wholeheartedly into this service.
2. That this House note that:
  - (a) a group of professionals, volunteers, parents and carers of people with intellectual disabilities and the aged established the SCSC,
  - (b) since its establishment the SCSC has extended services to many ethnic families from Chinese, Korean and Vietnamese communities in the Inner West and Western Sydney, and
  - (c) this organisation was officially recognised as a tax deductible charity in 2014.
3. That this House acknowledge the SCSC's aim is to develop and provide specialised educational programs, training and therapeutic programs to people with intellectual disabilities, particularly young children from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, and that the SCSC also aims to address the service gap issues encountered by people with disabilities, the aged and their carers from culturally and linguistic backgrounds in the Australian community.
4. That this House recognise the impact the SCSC has on struggling families through their unwavering efforts to provide a high quality support service, crucial respite service and information to carers and families to assist them to cope with the demands of caring for people with intellectual disabilities or the aged, via educational workshops and information sessions.
5. That this House commend the SCSC for also providing opportunities and performance training for people with intellectual disabilities, to showcase their talents in the public arena in available art forms.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Mr BUCKINGHAM says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House notes that:
  - (a) The state of California has decided to mandate that almost all new homes must be fitted with solar panels after 1 January 2020.
  - (b) The mandate will result in cheaper electricity bills for households, reduced need to invest in transmission infrastructure, and lower greenhouse gas emissions.
  - (c) The new mandate is part of California's effort to cut greenhouse gas emissions by 40% by 2030.
2. That this House calls on the NSW government to adopt a similar mandate for new dwellings and commercial premises constructed in NSW.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Mr Wong says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House congratulate the Lions Club of Sydney Pacific Inc. District 201N5 who celebrated their 22nd Anniversary Gala Ball on Saturday 28 April 2018, particularly the contribution of the President, Lion Eugenia Liu and the Executive committee who put in an outstanding effort to serve the community.
2. That this House note that this annual gala event is one of the major fundraising events for this club, and that the attendance number exceeded 300 guests from both Chinese and non-Chinese backgrounds who came together to support a very worthy cause and have a great time in the process.
3. That this House acknowledge the recipient of funds from this year's event, WHO (We Help Ourselves) who are one of the largest drug and alcohol, non-government treatment providers in Australia that provides a wide range of services offering high quality care and effective residential and day program treatment for people who have high levels of dependence on drugs and alcohol or complex needs, including mental health issues.
4. That this House commend the efforts of the Lions Club of Sydney Pacific Inc who raise much needed funds for countless organisations in our community including; community, education, medical, children and aged care groups just to name a few, and that without the efforts of clubs like this, many of these organisations would be unable to offer critical services and assistance to those in our community who are most in need..

NOTICE OF MOTION

Mr Franklin says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House notes:
  - (a) that 2018 marks the 70th anniversary of the Bangalow CWA branch,
  - (b) the branch was founded in 1948 with 26 members who came together to establish a baby health centre and rest room,
  - (c) in the past 70 years the branch has provide immense support to the Bangalow and wider community including fund raising for local school scholarships, the Far West Children's Home, Liberation Larder and Shift Project Byron Bay, and
  - (d) today, the branch has 72 members and engages in philanthropic work for rural women through all stages of their lives.
2. That this House congratulates:
  - (a) members of the Bangalow CWA branch, both past and present for all their work in the Bangalow community,
  - (b) the members of the branch executive for ensuring the branch reached this incredible milestone, including:
    - (i) President – Di Campbell,
    - (ii) Vice President – Dr Michelle Wallace,
    - (iii) Vice President (and one of the longest serving members) – Sybil Johnston.
    - (iv) Secretary – Sharon O'Meara, and

NOTICE OF MOTION

Mrs Houssos says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House notes that:
  - (a) women spend in <sup>the</sup> order of $10,000 on tampons and feminine hygiene products during their lifetime, or over $200 a year ~~on tampons and feminine hygiene products~~, and
  - (b) New South Wales is one of the only states or territories that does not support the removal of what is known as the "tampon tax" ~~and the removal of the tampon tax~~
2. That this House acknowledges that women should not be taxed on essential items which enable them to live, work and participate fully in our community.
3. That this House recognises that there is currently a list of health goods that are GST exempt and that:
  - (a) this list includes sunscreen, nicotine patches and condoms, and
  - (b) despite being an essential item, tampons and <sup>other</sup> feminine hygiene products are not included on this list.
4. That this House congratulates Federal Shadow Treasurer Chris Bowen MP for his recent announcement that a future Labor Government will remove the GST from tampons and <sup>other</sup> sanitary items.
5. That this House recognises that this outdated tax on women needs to end and calls on Premier Berejiklian to follow Labor's policy and agree to scrap the GST on tampons and other sanitary items.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Mr Shoebridge says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House notes:
  - a. Young Aboriginal people facing criminal proceedings in our courts often face significant barriers to justice not faced by their non-Aboriginal peers.
  - b. Structural issues including lack of funding of legal services as well as travel and accommodation <sup>costs</sup> contribute to Aboriginal young people being treated more harshly for similar offending.
2. This house notes with concern that:
  - a. Young Aboriginal people often face pressure to plead guilty if they have moved away from the court where criminal proceedings were first commenced.
  - b. Amongst the disadvantages faced by young Aboriginal people is that they often don't have the financial capacity to travel back to court for a defended hearing they are often encouraged, indeed forced, to plead guilty.
3. That this House urges the Attorney General to undertake a review with a view to providing greater resources to young Aboriginal people facing criminal proceedings in our courts.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Mr Farlow says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House notes:
  - a. That on 14 April 2018 the Korean War Memorial Peace Concert was held at Sydney Town Hall.
  - b. That a number of attendees were present at the event including Republic of Korea Minister of Patriots and Veterans Affairs, Pi Woojin, Consul-General Yoon Sangsoo of the Republic of Korea, Patriotic Cultural Association chairman Lim Wookun, The Hon Victor Dominello MP, Minister for Finance, Services and Property, the Hon David Clarke MLC, Mr Damien Tudehope MP Member for Epping, Ms Jodi McKay MP, Rear Admiral (Retd) Ian Crawford, National President of Australian Council of Korea Veterans Associations, Cr Gulian Vaccari Mayor of Strathfield Council as well as the Hon Scott Farlow MLC representing the Minister for Multiculturalism the Hon Ray Williams MP.
2. That this House notes:
  - a. That the Korean War began on 25 June 1950 when North Korea invaded South Korea following a series of clashes along the border. The United Nations, with the United States as the principal force, came to the aid of South Korea.
  - b. Immense sacrifices were made by veterans of both Australian and Korean nationalities on the battlefield during the War. More than 17,000 Australians served during the Korean War, of whom 340 were killed and more than 1,216 wounded. A further 29 had become prisoners of war.
  - c. More than 66,000 residents in New South Wales claim Korean Ancestry with many making Sydney their home. The Korean community is young and almost 70% of Korean-born people in NSW are under 45 meaning many do not recall the events of the war.

3. That this House acknowledges:

- a. The more than 60 Australian Veterans present at the event as well as the Peace Ambassadors Orchestra and Seocho Philharmoniker BAE Jonghoon, artistic director and conductor and all contributing artists that ensured the concert was a success.
