

INQUIRY INTO BENEFICIAL AND PRODUCTIVE POST-MINING LAND USE

Name: Name suppressed

Date Received: 18 June 2024

Partially
Confidential

I would like to see that open cut mines planted out in native species for feeding our wildlife.

This has most probably been thought about before, but where there is a big open area left from open cut mines, build structures to hold solar panels.

The infrastructure is close by for feeding this renewable source into the grid.

It's a no brainer, that's why I am assuming it has been thought of before this.