INQUIRY INTO IMPACT OF THE REGULATORY FRAMEWORK FOR CANNABIS IN NEW SOUTH WALES

Hello, the prohibition of cannabis in its current form is extremely excessive. Very occasionally, I have a small amount of cannabis recreationally as it is relaxing and doesn't have the negative side effects of alcohol. If I was to be caught in possession of this very small amount it would have a significant impact on my life and I would most likely lose my job. I know others that use cannabis medicinally and have experienced judgement and bias from doctors who won't prescribe it (presumably due to their own personal and/or cultural bias). Adults should be allowed to use recreationally if they choose to.
