message from the chair and chief executive

It has been a year of significant change at the NSW Film and Television Office with a new Chief Executive and a new NSW Arts Minister following the re-election of the Lemma Government in March 2007.

It was encouraging that the NSW State Plan, released in November 2006, and the Government's subsequent Innovation Statement, recognised the entertainment, media, fashion and creative arts sector – of which screen content is a key part – as one of five key sectors with the greatest capacity to drive the prosperity of NSW in the future. This follows work by former Harvard Business School Professor Jonathan West on an innovation framework for NSW.

FTO is looking forward to working across Government and with industry colleagues to achieve the NSW State Plan. State Plan priorities with major relevance to the screen content sector are:

- increased business investment
- increased business in regional NSW
- cutting red tape
- more people participating in the arts and cultural activity.

The NSW screen industries have much to be proud about in the year that has passed. The outstanding capabilities of our visual effects and animation sector were internationally recognised with an Oscar win for the work by Dr George Miller and Animal Logic colleagues on Happy Feet and an Oscar nomination for visual special effects work on Superman Returns undertaken by Rising Sun Pictures.

Further critical and marketplace success was achieved this year by a number of projects with FTO production finance. NSW productions supported by the FTO received more than 50 Australian Film Institute (AFI) nominations in October 2006, a record for FTO supported projects. Suburban Mayhem received 12 AFI nominations, the most for any single film. The ground-breaking TV drama RAN won its category as did the feature documentary Hunt Angels. The Young Filmmakers' Fund (YFF) continued its record of success with 23 recently produced YFF films collectively screening at more than 200 international and local venues, and receiving 61 nominations and awards.

Clubland, which sold for US$4.1m after its premiere at the Sundance Film Festival, became the first Australian film ever to open to United States audiences on the July 4 Independence Day holiday.

This year the Production Fund invested $3.55m to generate a NSW production spend of $38.6m. The Regional Filming Fund provided grants valued at $498,000 to nine projects, generating a record regional production spend of $3.72m. One Aurora project, The Black Balloon, was financed into production and two others are at advanced stages of finance.

The FTO continued its support for Indigenous filmmakers with Bit of Black Business, a joint initiative with the Australian Film Commission (AFC), which provided opportunities for emerging Indigenous program-makers to experiment in the short format and to make their first television drama.

The FTO's Industry and Audience Development Program supported projects and events that generated audiences throughout NSW of 460,000 and reached substantial Western Sydney and regional audiences.

The FTO's Production Liaison Unit provided support and advice to a range of national and international productions, most notably: Baz Luhrmann's high budget feature Australia and the Bollywood production Heyy Babyy, which will showcase Sydney to a wide international audience. Australia received considerable support from the NSW Film and Television Industry Attraction Fund and was a major boost for the NSW industry, employing approximately 980 cast and crew from NSW.

The NSW Government recognises the importance of securing future large budget productions and we are confident that NSW will secure additional local production activity in 2007-08 and onwards once the Federal Location Offset, PDV Offset and Producer Offsets are introduced.

The FTO announced a review of its Development and Investment Guidelines in June 2007 and issued a briefing paper inviting industry comments. The review is an opportunity to reflect on changes in development and production practices, especially in the light of digital technology, and for the FTO to respond to changes in the federal funding environment. Signalling plans to provide a level of support to businesses that goes beyond one-off projects, the FTO began a round of public consultations to canvass ideas with filmmakers and industry guilds following the release of the paper.

In line with the Government's commitment to cutting red tape the FTO has worked with the Department of Premier and Cabinet and Department of State and Regional Development (DSRD) to progress a package of measures to ensure NSW is film-friendly and open for business. The FTO worked with DSRD on a review of the NSW PDV (post-production, digital and special effects) industry to identify ways of fostering innovation and building on the sector's international reputation.

Jane Smith resigned as Chief Executive at the end of 2006 after ten years at the helm. Jane was a passionate advocate for the screen industries in New South Wales and under her leadership the FTO pioneered many groundbreaking initiatives including Aurora, the Young Filmmakers Fund and the award winning Regional Cinema Program. The FTO also farewelled Sally Browning, Head of Development and Investment, and Board members Penny Chapman and Robert Connolly. The FTO welcomed a new Chief Executive, Tania Chambers, Linda Tizard, Head of Development and Investment and new Board members Geoffrey Atherden and Rosemary Blight.

We thank the FTO Board members for contributing their time and considerable expertise throughout the year. The Board has an exceptional depth and range of industry experience. Finally, none of our many achievements would have been possible without the FTO's talented and dedicated staff. We thank them and look forward to building on the strengths of the NSW screen industries in the coming year.

Project development

A number of projects developed by the FTO went into production this year, including The Black Balloon, East of Everything, Emerald Falls (aka The Falls), The Square, The Tender Hook, Deported to Danger, Fat Chance, Global Haywire, Inspiring Teachers, Kick (aka Wog Street Soccer Club), Clubland, Razzle Dazzle, Suburb 4 Sale, Double Trouble, Forbidden Lie$, Naked on the Inside, Bastard Boys, The Home Song Stories and Mortified.

This year the FTO received 127 funding applications for development and invested $529,160 in 55 projects with 46% allocated to features, 24% to factual programming, 16% to television drama and 14% to travel.

Aurora

Aurora, the first intensive script program of its kind in Australia, continues to provide high-level skills development for creative teams. The program has already produced two very successful films, Somersault and Little Fish. The Black Balloon went into production this year and will release in 2008.

Aurora Round 5 attracted 19 applications. A panel of six assessors – Nerida Moore (FTO), Linda Tizard (FTO), Tim Richards, Sue Murray, Liz Watts and Artistic Director Duncan Thompson – selected a shortlist of nine projects for further consideration. Linda Tizard and Duncan Thompson made the final selection.

Filmmaker Dr George Miller announced the four successful projects at a press conference on 14 March 2007:

- Mr Darwin's Shooter, the story of a friendship between a boy and a young Charles Darwin, has been adapted from Roger MacDonald's book by screenwriter John Alsop (RAN, My Brother Jack, Brides of Christ) and will be directed by Fred Schepisi (Six Degrees of Separation, Plenty, The Chant of Jimmy Blacksmith) and produced by Penny Chapman (The Road from Coorain, RAN).
- Six Weeks in Heaven tells of a nine year old girl who seeks to fulfill the dying wish of her brother for one last summer holiday. The writer is Chris Phillips. Nadia Tass (Malcolm, The Big Steal) will direct and Dennis Kiely will produce.
- Grace is set in a world where women are one notch above convicts and savages. Grace, the daughter of a high-ranking official, is forced to face her terrible past. Writer/director Jennifer Kent, who had a successful career as an actor before switching to writing/directing, also made the award winning YFF short Monster and directed the Two Twisted episode Love Crimes. Producer Helen Bowden (Soft Fruit, Travelling Light) previously participated in Aurora with the film Shiver, which is in development.
- Eleven Months is the story of a man with just $150 and a desire to get drunk. The team behind the project is writer/director Michael Joy and producer John L Simpson.

The residential workshop for these teams took place in March at Jervis Bay on the NSW South Coast.

The advisors included producer Jan Chapman (Somersault, Love Serenade, The Piano), director Shirley Barrett (Love Serenade, Walk the Talk) and international advisors Laurie Parker (producer of films including In the Cut, My Private Idaho and Even Cowgirls Get the Blues), and Graham Leader (producer of In the Bedroom which was nominated for five Academy Awards, and of the recently completed Childless).

The teams currently on the program from the last round are:

- Buckle Up Baby (aka Under The Dash) - writer/director Lynn-Maree Danzey and producer Susan MacKinnon. A story of a woman finding love in the face of disaster.
- Borrowed Light - writer/director Karen Borger and producer Sarah Nichols. The story of a family trying to find their way back from the chill of self-imposed exile in their own version of deep space.
- Girl - writer/director John O'Brien and producers Rowan Maher and Darryl Robinson. An automaton, engaged as a servant starts to develop emotions for her master.
- Satellite Boy - writer/director Catriona McKenzie and producer David Jowsey. A young Aboriginal orphan dreams of being an astronaut.
- The Roseville Game (aka The Roseville Story) – writer Alexandra Long, director Samantha Lang, producers Jeremy Sims and Greg Duffy

In November 2006, the FTO held the follow-up workshop for these teams. This was more vibrant than ever with the involvement of 11 filmmaking teams, 10 advisors, over 30 actors, six casting agents and patron Jane Campion, who gave an informal master-class for directors.

The teams met with all the advisors and two casting agents of choice. They also had the opportunity to work with actors for a day and a half. Each team delivered new drafts of the script and other material in advance of the workshop. One of the most successful aspects of this year's workshop was the read through of the script with actors, who gave feedback on their roles and character relationships within the story. Time was allotted for work-shopping scenes and improvising, which proved invaluable because of the calibre and generosity of the participating actors – including Hugo Weaving, Vince Colosimo, Joel Edgerton, Nathaniel Dean, Genevieve Lemon, Bojana Novakovic and Emily Browning. As the Artistic Director Duncan Thompson said of this part of the process: "It creates a unique opportunity for each character's journey to be analysed and played with from the inside in a way that neither the writer nor director could do on their own."

Advisors were:

- Christophe Mercier, Vice President of Fox Searchlight Europe
- San Fu Maltha, founder of Fu Works, an independent, internationally minded film development, production and distribution company based in Amsterdam
- Martha Coleman, Australian producer now based in London as Head of Creative Affairs at Material Entertainment
- Andy Spaulding, Executive Vice-President of US company Echo Lake Productions
- John Collee, screenwriter (Master and Commander and Happy Feet)
- Shirley Barrett, director (Walk The Talk, Love Serenade and Love My Way)
- Ken Sallows, editor (Chopper, Proof, Gettin' Square, Tom White and Irresistible)
- Sue Murray, Executive Director of Fandango Australia
- Alan Finney, Vice President and Managing Director for Buena Vista International, Australia New Zealand
- Brian Rosen, Chief Executive of Film Finance Corporation Australia (FFC)

For the first time the FTO invited six teams from previous Aurora rounds to participate in the follow-up workshop in order to focus on their financing and marketing strategies.

New Feature Film Writers Scheme (NFFWS)

The NFFWS Scheme was designed to provide an opportunity for scriptwriters with less than 45 minutes of produced credits to develop their feature film project to the next stage with the guidance of an experienced script editor. Conducted annually since 2002, an average of 140 applications were received per round. Up to four writers were selected each round by an especially convened panel of assessors comprising experienced industry practitioners and internal FTO Project Officers. In recent years the FTO added a one-week script workshop to the program, focussing on the applicants' individual scripts as well as on broader craft skills.

The scheme attracted 55 applications in 2006. The assessment panel comprised industry representatives Andy Cox, Charlie Carman, Patricia Lovell and Stephen Davis, and FTO representative Karena Slaninka.

The four successful applicants were:

Title	Writer(s)	Script Editor
My Father's Faith	Josh Wakely Ian Meadows	Steve Vidler
Raging River	Paul He	Nick Parsons
Alice in Vuglug	Heidi Regan	Stephen Davis
The Charismatic Man	Brad Foster	Lynne Vincent McCarthy

The workshop week this year was conducted by Charlie Carman, on behalf of The Script Factory, a UK based agency specialising in script development and consultancy. The week focused on basic writing skills within a context of a clearly identified genre. All participants found the week both informative and stimulating.

The selected projects demonstrated a variety of subjects and a wide range of approaches amongst the new writers:

- My Father's Faith is the story of a group of friends at a prestigious Catholic boarding school, who suddenly find themselves coming face to face with the illusions and myths that cover up the truth of their world. It is a story about Australia's institutions and the lies we tell - a story of sport, sexual abuse, religion and rugby.
- Raging River is inspired by a true story, and tells of a Chinese immigrant with a haunting past, who arrives in the 19th century colony of New South Wales. The film is set in the period of the gold rush, against the volatile backdrop of political, social and economic upheaval.
- Alice in Vuglug is an absurd comedy about a young girl, Alice, who is told she is the Chosen One destined to save the mystical world of Vuglug. As she tries to prove her mettle to the world, and in particular her boyfriend George, her greatest strength, and her greatest weakness, is her constant focus on the little things. From this she derives a new perspective on life, and the ability to confront the evil lord Bothom.
- The Charismatic Man begins with a random act of violence, as a result of which Edward Granger, a successful academic, joins a self-help group in order to overcome his grief. But the group is in fact a secret cult, and what it is selling is anything but forgiveness.

Hothouse

The Hothouse joint documentary initiative with Film Australia provided assistance in the form of working capital and on-site services to two established documentary filmmakers, Jessica Douglas-Henry and Mary Ellen Mullane. The filmmakers developed and produced a slate of projects and then decided to follow separate business models, a satisfactory outcome.

Market access and travel assistance

The FTO continued its sponsorship of producers to attend the No Borders co-production market in New York, in partnership with the New Zealand Film Commission and Film Victoria. Only 35 projects from around the world are invited to attend this annual invitation-only financing market, which is becoming one of the most important independent film financing events. This year two members of the creative team behind the NSW project South Solitary - producer Antonia Barnard and director Shirley Barrett - attended the market and found the experience extremely useful in raising the project's profile and attracting interest from top sales agents.

Attendance at a range of other markets was supported including Kidscreen Summit, New York (Avril Stark) and Hot Docs in Toronto (Sally Regan and Susan MacKinnon). The FTO assisted filmmakers to attend screenings of their films at several international festivals including Sundance Film Festival (Clubland), Berlin Film Festival (Razzle Dazzle) and Toronto International Film Festival (The Book of Revelation).

Industry liaison

In June 2007, the FTO co-hosted an industry forum with the Australian Screen Directors' Association (ASDA) at the Chauvel to discuss issues arising from the Federal Government's announcement of a new federal film support package. Speakers included Linda Tizard (FTO Head of Development & Investment), Peter Young (Department of Communications Information Technology and the Arts (DCITA) Film Branch), Brian Rosen (FFC) and Richard Harris (ASDA). This year FTO Development & Investment staff spoke at a number of industry forums and panels including the Australian Film and Television and Radio School (AFTRS) 'Business of Film Media' short course for producers, held in Wollongong and Newcastle.

Guidelines

The FTO announced a review of its Development and Investment Guidelines in June 2007 and issued a briefing paper inviting industry comments. The review is an opportunity to reflect on changes in development and production practices, especially in the light of advances in digital technology, and for the FTO to respond to changes in the federal funding environment. Signalling plans to provide a level of support to businesses that goes beyond one off projects, the FTO began a round of public consultations to canvass ideas with filmmakers and industry guilds in late June.

Young Filmmakers Fund

The YFF has funded 107 projects since its inception in 1995, with an exceptional variety of subject matter in numerous formats including short dramas, documentaries, animation, experimental films and a short feature.

In this past year alone, 23 of the recently produced YFF films have collectively screened internationally and nationally at more than 200 venues, and received 61 nominations and awards. A sampling of these successes includes:

- Round 19 film Len's Love Story, produced by Michaela Kalowski and written/directed by Sonia Whiteman, has just begun its festival journey and has already screened at Clermont-Ferrand Short Film Festival France, and Tribeca Film Festival in New York, where it was selected by New York Magazine as one of their top five shorts at the festival.
- Round 17 film Checkpoint, produced by Ben Phelps and Tim Kreibig, and written/directed by Ben Phelps, has screened at 40 festivals over the past year in places such as Japan, Ireland, US, Spain, Finland, UK, and India. The film has been awarded Best International Short Film at Cleveland International Film Festival; Sydney Film Festival Dendy Award nomination in Fiction and winner of the CRC Award; Jury Prize at the Montreal World Film Festival; and Jury Prize at Newport International Film Festival.
- Round 16 film Vend, produced by Natasha Gray and written/directed by James Findlay, was awarded Best Short Film at St Kilda Film Festival, nominated for Best Short at Inside Film Awards, and was voted Best Experimental and Best of the Fest at the Golden Star Shorts Festival in Hollywood.
- Round 15 film Small Boxes, produced by Kristina Ceyton and written/directed by Rene Hernandez, has received nine nominations and awards including: AFI nomination for Best Short Fiction Film; Melbourne International Film Festival, Best Australian Short Film; and Jackson Hole Film Festival Cowboy Award for Best Short, US.

In 2006-07 the FTO held two further YFF rounds. Applicants were encouraged to submit cross-platform projects and the YFF guidelines, application form and webpage were reformatted to make them user-friendly.

For Round 20 the FTO received 37 applications, a fifty percent increase on the previous round. The projects included 26 shorts, one feature, four factual programs, four animations, one music video and a community television program. Of these 33 were for production and four for post-production.

The assessment panel, comprising Susan Kim Danta, Pat Lovell, Ian Walker and FTO project officer Nerida Moore, selected four projects from a shortlist of 12.

The FTO is committed to providing recipients with access to experienced filmmakers. The YFF is unique in that successful applicants have the opportunity to work with a mentor from pre-production through to the marketing stage in order to receive specific advice about their project.

Over the past year some of Australia's finest producing and directing talent have offered their expertise and advice to YFF recipients including: Wayne Blair for Brother Boys, Janet Bell for Dances in Time: The Films of Stephen Cummins, Liz Watts for Crossbow, Martin Fabinyi for Lullaby, Vincent Sheehan for Shadow Play, and Stuart Connolly for Dog.

New Media - Digital Visual FX Scheme (dfx)

The Digital Visual FX Scheme provides on-the-job skills development opportunities in the digital fx industry. Over the past eight years 48 trainees have been placed in six-month traineeships with some of Sydney's leading digital fx companies. Trainees have had the opportunity to work on such diverse and exciting projects as The Matrix, Farscape, Moulin Rouge and Happy Feet. Training has embraced a wide array of digital fx skills including 3D modelling and animation, compositing, design and fx production.

Round 11 attracted 40 applicants from a variety of backgrounds including stop-motion animation, industrial design, special effects, digital visual effects, computer science and electrical engineering. An assessment panel comprising Shilo McClean, Mike Seymour and Jackie D'Arcy drew up a shortlist of 15. This was circulated to eight participating companies: Animal Logic, Fuel International, Rising Sun Pictures, The Lab, Postmodern, Emerald City, Zspace and Forest Interactive. Four of the short-listed applicants were then placed with companies. The FTO met with each of the trainees and host companies at three and six month intervals to obtain feedback and to ensure the process was working well for both parties.

Nathan Sheldrick and Astrid Scholte were selected by The Lab, which was participating in the scheme for the first time. Nathan focused primarily on television commercials and Astrid worked on facial rigging on the television series Erky Perky. At the feedback meetings the trainees expressed their happiness with the outcome of the scheme, and at the end of their six-month term The Lab retained both of them as full-time employees.

Emily Tucker was placed at Rising Sun Pictures (RSP), also participating for the first time. Emily started her traineeship in 2D animation and compositing, and then worked in 3D on the feature film Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix. She also received an overview of the project bidding process, and recruitment and marketing aspects of high-end digital visual effects.

Nam Doan was selected by Postmodern to work in 3D animation and had the opportunity to apply his skills on the feature film Death Defying Acts. He was involved in client briefings and bids for projects, where he presented storyboards and character designs. Both Nam and Postmodern were greatly pleased with the outcome of the scheme and Nam was invited to continue at the company after the end of the six-month term.

Round 12 attracted 31 applicants, again from diverse backgrounds. A short-list of 15 was drawn up by an assessment panel comprising Shilo McClean, Viveka Wiley and Anthony Jennings and circulated to six participating companies: Animal Logic, Fuel International, Rising Sun Pictures, The Lab, Postmodern and Frame Set Match. Five of the short-listed applicants were placed as trainees. Three of these took up their placements towards the end of 2006-07 and the others will commence in 2007-08.

This year eight training institutions were contacted directly about the dfx scheme and FTO staff gave presentations at Sydney Institute Design Centre, the University of Technology and the Computer Graphics College.

Host companies and participants have relayed the following positive feedback:

"All in all, it's been fantastic having the trainee work with us during this time and our dealings with the FTO have been very positive. It is an extremely proactive scheme that we have had great pleasure being involved with." Round 11 host company representative

"Just wanted to thank everyone at FTO for giving a traditional artist an amazing break into the world of 3D. I've enjoyed it and am very grateful for it." Round 11 trainee

"... I feel very privileged to have this opportunity to train with a company that is so open to teaching people and so uniquely structured for a VFX house - I'm loving it!" Round 11 trainee

" I would like to thank you and the FTO program for providing me with this great opportunity and I know I would not be here without you! So thank you again, I'll keep in touch to let you know of any future accomplishments." Round 11 trainee

As part of its broader guideline review, the Development and Investment Unit will review the dfx guidelines to ensure the scheme continues to meet the needs of industry and trainees in a fast changing environment.

Industry and Audience Development

This year over 460,000 people from NSW experienced an event or activity funded by an FTO Industry & Audience Development (I&AD) grant (see map on page 22). This was achieved with FTO support of $833,900.

The I&AD program funds activities such as festivals, conferences, professional training programs, touring programs and mentorships provided by industry organisations.

Highlights of FTO-supported screen culture activity included the Sydney Arab Film Festival in Western Sydney. According to the 2001 Census Arabic is the second most spoken language in NSW after English. The festival provides an opportunity for Arabic and non-Arabic speaking communities to watch and discuss stories that explore topical issues and tackle limiting stereotypes.

For the first time in Tropfest's 15-year history, an animated short won first prize: An Imaginary Life by Steve Baker. A live audience of 100,000 in Sydney's Domain watched the 16 finalist films. For the first time audiences in regional NSW were able to watch the event live via the AFC's Regional Digital Screen network, which is equipping regional cinemas with digital projection. The judges included Oscar-winning Happy Feet director Dr. George Miller, Oscar-winning art director Catherine Martin, and Kenny director Clayton Jacobson.

More than 18,000 online viewers saw Sydney filmmaker Emmanuel Marshal win the Portable Film Festival Viewer's Choice Award with his made-for-mobile screen story Behind The Façade. His prize included an international promotion package valued at $100,000 through MySpace, plus US$1,500 cash.

Gifted Indigenous screen and stage actor, Luke Carroll (Australian Rules, RAN), provided workshop and awards support to the North West Film Festival in Bingarra (known as the Youth Oscars in The Bush). This allowed young people in rural communities and already engaged in digital narrative and multimedia production to demonstrate their storytelling skills.

The world's fifth largest queer film festival, Sydney's Mardi Gras Film Festival, awarded Sydney filmmaker Amy Gebhardt the My Queer Career Award for Look Sharp, an intimate portrayal of two men from the infamous Sharpie Gang of Melbourne. As a result of this screening, Amy obtained an AFC grant to take her short narrative to New York for the US version of Mardi Gras Fest.

2006-07 FUNDING

The FTO received 58 applications for I&AD funding, with requests totalling more than $1.15 million, and contracted 41 projects and events grants and one organisational grant with a total value of $833,900. A complete list can be found at Appendix 8A. In June 2007 the FTO approved a further 38 I&AD grants valued at $808,000 for projects to be undertaken in 2007-08. These are listed in Appendix 8B.

Production Finance

In 2006-07 the Production Investment Fund received 66 applications and invested $3.551m in 21 projects (eight features, seven factual programs, five TV series and a telemovie) generating a NSW production spend of $38.66m, representing approximately $11 production for every FTO dollar invested.

Although the FTO is generally a minority investor, its contribution is critical to ensuring that a healthy level of Australian production occurs in the State. In the context of sustained pressure on production investment funds, the FTO's decision-making reflected a desire to provide the best use of these funds, taking into account the creative merits and economic impact of projects.

The funds were split fairly evenly between features ($1.81m) and television drama and factual programs ($1.74m). Within the television drama slate the FTO supported two mini-series, a telemovie and a series. The SBS Independent mini-series East West 101 (aka Major Crime) from producer Steve Knapman and writer Kris Wyld is directed by Peter Andrikidis and tells the story of a young Muslim detective facing the post 9/11 world.

The ABC mini-series East of Everything, set in the Byron area and co-written by Deb Cox (Sea Change, Simone de Beauvoir's Babies) and Roger Monk (Walking on Water, Secret Life of Us), assembled an outstanding cast including Richard Roxborough and Susie Porter.

The scenic Blue Mountains is the setting for the Network Ten telemovie Emerald Falls (aka The Falls), a murder mystery co-written by Tim Pye (BlackJack, Lockie Leonard) and Cathy Strickland (McLeod's Daughters), produced by Ron Saunders (Double Trouble) and directed by Peter Andrikidis (BlackJack, Mary Bryant). The ABC comedy adventure series Double the Fist was supported to produce a second series.

The FTO supported a diverse feature slate from the low-budget thriller Cactus by writer/director Jasmine Yuen-Carrucan and producer Paul Sullivan, jointly funded by the AFC's IndiVision, to the Gillian Armstrong directed international co-production Death Defying Acts about the escapist Houdini. The stop motion puppet animated feature $9.99 from up and coming director Tatia Rosenthal and producers Emile Sherman (Candy, Opal Dream) and Amir Harel (Paradise Now) is the first Australia-Israel co-production.

Two Aurora features were approved for financing. The coming-of-age story The Black Balloon was written and directed by Elissa Down and produced by Tristram Miall (Strictly Ballroom, Children of the Revolution).

Disgrace, from the filmmaking team of writer/producer Anna-Maria Monticelli and director Steve Jacobs, teamed with producer Emile Sherman, is based on J.M. Coetzee's Booker Prize winning novel and will star John Malkovich. The black comedy The Square is Nash Edgerton's directorial debut and Joel Edgerton's first foray into writing.

This year's factual program slate included A Northern Town (director Rachel Landers, producer Dylan Blowden) set in an Indigenous owned and operated aged care facility, Rampant: How a City Stopped a Plague (aka The Plague) from producer Penny Chapman and writer-director Victoria Pitt tells the story of the first person in Australia to be diagnosed with AIDS, and Julien Temple's The Eternity Man tells the story of Arthur Stace. Tim Slade's music documentary 4 completed production and screened at the Sydney Film Festival. The Catalpa Rescue by writer/director Lisa Sabina Harney is the story of the daring rescue of six Irish rebels from the notorious Fremantle prison in 1876.

This year a number of projects with FTO production finance achieved impressive critical and marketplace success.

The feature Clubland sold for an impressive US$4.1m at Sundance and was scheduled to open to United States audiences on the July 4 Independence Day holiday. The film's production company, Essential Viewing, was the recipient of the FTO's inaugural Enterprise Loan, which it has used to develop international partnerships and a sustainable business strategy.

After screening at Berlin, Razzle Dazzle opened in eight regional Australian cinemas in March, going out via the Australian Film Commission's newly launched Regional Digital Screen Network on the same day as it was released in metropolitan centres.

The ground-breaking television series RAN, shot entirely on location and using Indigenous population as cast, won a host of critical nominations and awards.

Indigenous initiatives

The FTO joined with the Australian Film Commission (AFC) and SBS to support Bit of Black Business, 13 five-minute short films by predominately first-time filmmakers, providing opportunities for emerging Indigenous program-makers to experiment in the short format and to make their first television dramas. Produced by Kath Shelper, the short films had their world premiere as part of the Message Sticks Indigenous Film Festival in Sydney in May and later undertook a national tour. Nana, directed by Warwick Thornton, screened at the opening night of the Sydney Film Festival.

The Message Sticks Festival also included several programs funded by the FTO as part of the National Indigenous Documentary Initiative: Crocodile Dreaming, When The Natives Get Restless and Flour, Sugar, Tea.

Cross platform

This year the FTO partnered with Film Australia, the Australian Film, TV and Radio School and SBS Digital Media in the Change the World in Five Minutes cross media initiative.

The chosen submissions include five-minute documentaries, four-minute dramas and 30-second animations, all with a vision to make a difference to the world locally or globally, with concepts ranging from fish finger energy consumption to shopping trolley makeovers. SBS Digital Media will host and maintain a website to showcase the projects and work with the successful applicants to create a range of online interactive content. Some segments are also expected to be suitable for screening on SBS television and mobile media.

Production Loan Finance Fund (Revolving Fund)

The FTO has a one-off Production Loan Finance Fund to support production in NSW. Only fully financed productions are eligible to apply to this fund and strict security requirements are in place. This year the FTO provided loans to five features and one factual program valued at $1.14m. The projects were $9.99, Disgrace, 4, Death Defying Acts, Clubland and The Square.

Critical Acclaim 2006-07

NSW productions supported by the FTO received a record 59 nominations at the Australian Institute Awards, 15 at the IF Awards and 21 at the Film Critics Circle Awards.

Suburban Mayhem received 12 AFI nominations, the most for any single film. Its lead Emily Barclay won Best Lead Actress at both the AFI and IF awards and Anthony Hayes won Best Supporting Actor at the AFI. The film also won Best Music at the IF Awards, won its category as the Australian Screen Editors Awards, and screened as the closing night film at the Melbourne International Film Festival.

Candy won the AFI award for Best Adapted Screenplay while Abbie Cornish and Geoffrey Rush won Best Actress and Best Supporting Role respectively at the Film Critics Circle Awards (FCCA). The script won Best Feature Film Adaptation at the AWGIES and Best Achievement in Editing for a feature at the Screen Editors Awards. Jindabyne won Best Director, Best Adapted Screenplay and Best Supporting Actress (Deborra-Lee Furness) at the FCCA. Book of Revelation took out Best Music Score at the FCCA.

The television series RAN received nine AFI nominations and won Best Tele-feature or Miniseries and Best Screenplay. Best Lead Actress went to the series' lead Susie Porter, who also won Most Outstanding Actress for the role at the Logies. The Australasian Performing Rights Association/Australian Guild of Screen Composers (APRA/AGSC) Best Soundtrack Album Award also went to RAN.

Love My Way won Best Television Drama Series at the AFI and Most Outstanding Drama Series at the Logies. The Incredible Journey of Mary Bryant, which picked up a host of awards last year is still picking up awards, including Best Music for a Miniseries or Telemovie at the APRA-AGSC Awards

Hunt Angels won Best Documentary and Best Cinematography in a Documentary at the AFI Awards and Best Feature Documentary at the FCCA. Unfolding Florence won Best Documentary Script at the AWGIES, Best Achievement in Editing in a Documentary Award at the Australian Screen Editors Awards and Best Music for a Documentary at the APRA/AGSC Awards. The Prodigal Son won Best Short Documentary at the IF Awards. Crossing The Line shared the Prix de Jury Award at the SCINEMA International Festival of Science held at the Powerhouse Museum.

YFF films continued to achieve high levels of acclaim as outlined in the YFF section of this report and in Appendix 6D.

FTO supported projects had strong exposure at major international film festivals. Razzle Dazzle screened at Berlin International Film Festival and Clubland had its world premiere at the Sundance Film Festival. Candy, Jindabyne, The Silence, Suburban Mayhem, Romulus, My Father and The Book of Revelation all screened at Toronto International Film Festival. Candy, Suburban Mayhem, Footy Legends and The Book Of Revelation screened at the Australian Film Festival in London. Jindabyne was invited to screen at the Edinburgh, Pusan and Hong Kong international film festivals. Romulus, My Father screened at the Munich International Film Festival. Singapore International Film Festival selected Footy Legends, The Silence and Suburban Mayhem and Candy and the latter two had further exposure at international film festivals held in Sao Paulo and Chicago.

NSW feature documentaries excelled this year with Hunt Angels screening at the International Film Festival in Rotterdam and the Shanghai International Film Festival, and Unfolding Florence at Singapore international Film Festival, the Australian Film Festival in Israel and Montreal World Film Festival among others. Forbidden Lie$ and The Last Days of Yasser Arafat were selected to screen at Hot Docs in Canada and Elvis Lives in Parkes screened at the Aspen Film Festival.

Production Liaison

The Production Liaison Unit (PLU) promotes the advantages of filming in NSW to local and international producers, works with other NSW government agencies to improve the filming environment and provides a range of services to producers interested in filming or post-producing in NSW.

PLU provided support and advice to a range of national and international productions including the Baz Luhrmann feature Australia and the Bollywood production Heyy Babyy, set and shot in Sydney, which will showcase the city to a wide international audience. Other foreign productions included the US reality show Real World. The high profile television series The Bold and the Beautiful and the reality show America's Next Top Model both shot several episodes in Sydney.

The value of NSW production rose significantly this year, largely due to the high-budget studio-financed project Australia, which commenced shooting in April 2007 and was filmed at Fox Studios and on location. The film received considerable support from the NSW Film and Television Industry Attraction Fund and employed approximately 980 cast and crew from NSW, providing a major boost for the state.

Projects financed through the FTO's Development and Investment Unit that shot during the year included The Black Balloon, East West 101 (aka Major Crime), Double Trouble, East of Everything, Cactus and series 2 of Double the Fist. The mini-series East of Everything commenced shooting in and around Byron, with the Byron Council recognising its benefit to the area by voting to waive filming fees. The production injected more than $6m into the Tweed and Northern Rivers economy. Cactus shot in Bathurst, Cobar, Wilcannia and Broken Hill, while Emerald Falls (aka The Falls) shot partly in the Blue Mountains. The FTO-supported animation $9.99 was also in production during the year.

Several low-budget films shot in NSW. These included the Tropfest feature September, the IndiVision feature Black Water, filmed in Gungah Bay on the Georges River, and The Final Winter, which went on to screen at the Sydney Film Festival. The Seven Network's long-running series All Saints and the serial Home and Away both continued production. Series 3 of the Foxtel series Love My Way, series 5 of the Nine Network's Comedy Inc and the Fox 8 series Dangerous also shot in NSW during the year.

PDV – Post production digital and visual special effects sector

The NSW PDV sector received much deserved accolades with an Oscar win for Animal Logic's work on Happy Feet and an Oscar nomination for Superman Returns visual special effects undertaken by Rising Sun Pictures. In recognition of this the Department of State and Regional Development (DSRD) commissioned a report in May 2007 into the NSW PDV sector to investigate how the NSW Government could assist in the further development of this sector. The FTO was closely involved with the review.

Regional Filming Fund (RFF)

The Regional Filming Fund (RFF) provided funding worth $497,974 to nine projects, generating a record regional production spend of $3.72m.

This included four features (Newcastle, September, Cactus and The View from Greenhaven Drive), one telemovie (Murder in the Outback, aka To Catch a Killer), one television series (East of Everything), two documentaries (Kempsey, A Northern Town and When the Natives Get Restless) and a documentary series (Not All Tea and Scones). Newcastle shot in Newcastle, September in Boorowa, Yass and Harden, The View From Greenhaven Drive shot in Sydney, Patonga and Mudgee, and Murder in the Outback in Sydney and Broken Hill.

PLU maintains a close relationship with the state's Regional Film Offices. In March PLU and DSRD co-hosted the annual meeting of the offices at the FTO. PLU also attended the Local Government and Shires Tourism Conference in March in order to promote filming in the regions.

Promoting NSW as a filming destination

This year PLU undertook the following international marketing activities:

- Attendance at the Association of Film Commissioners International Cineposium in Pasadena
- Attendance at the American Film Market (AFM) in Los Angeles to discuss distribution of NSW projects. This provided an opportunity to meet with LA producers and studio executives. FTO representatives attended an event to honour the producers of Superman which was filmed in NSW
- Attendance at Locations Expo and G'day USA celebrations in Los Angeles including hosting a table of LA based executives at the Penfolds Gala Dinner
- Attendance at Hong Kong Filmart 2007, which provides access to Asian filmmakers and an opportunity to promote NSW post-production services in this burgeoning market, and HAF Financing Forum as part of the Ausfilm delegation, specifically to promote post-production and general awareness of filming in NSW
- Attendance at Frames 2007 in Mumbai, to capitalise on the current interest from Bollywood productions in filming in NSW
- Visit to London to meet with production companies, distributors and television commercial production companies

PLU continued to work closely with DSRD and Tourism NSW to promote the state's advantage as a filming location. The Chief Executive represented the State Agency Members on the Ausfilm Executive and the PLU Manager represents the FTO on the Ausfilm marketing committee.

This year PLU pitched for 76 international projects, nearly double the number pitched for in the previous year, and hosted 17 overseas inbound guests visiting Sydney. (See Appendices 10B and 10C for details of pitches and inbounds).

Incentives

The NSW Film & Television Industry Attraction Fund is administered through the DSRD with assistance from the FTO. The Fund offers payroll tax rebates for footloose productions looking to shoot or post-produce in NSW. During the past year NSW has continued to face strong competition as a result of enhanced incentives offered by overseas jurisdictions and other Australian states.

The FTO was encouraged by the Federal Government's decision to increase the level of the Refundable Tax Offset from 12.5% to 15% in the May budget. The revamped incentive is now called the Location Offset. Another very welcome move was the introduction of a discrete incentive for PDV (post production digital and visual special effects) projects with a minimum local spend threshold of $5m, available regardless of whether the project is shot in Australia. While these are encouraging initiatives, the FTO remains concerned that foreign production is essentially volatile and that regular throughput is required to keep the skills of our crews current and ensure that experienced filmmakers remain in the industry.

Making NSW more film friendly

The FTO is a member of the Sydney Film Support Team, chaired by the Director-General of DSRD and including staff from the Department of Premier and Cabinet. The FTO worked during the year to progress a package of measures to make NSW more film friendly. This follows concerns raised by the FTO with State Government about the low level of compliance with the Local Government Protocol by local councils, the move by some local councils to require a Development Application for filming, and a range of other issues from fees to truck parking.

Logistical support for filmmakers

PLU provides location images, logistical information and general advice to international, interstate and local productions looking to film in NSW and updates the highly popular Stacks of Facts publication annually (available in hardcopy and on the FTO website).

[section 05] organisation

fto as an organisation

Board

The FTO Board is scheduled to meet every four to six weeks and meets on other occasions if required. The Board met on eleven occasions in 2006-07.

Policy

In July and August 2006 the FTO made submissions to the Federal Government Review of the Film Tax Offset and the larger Review of Australian Government Film Funding Support. With the introduction of the Producer, Location and PDV Offsets from 1 July 2007, the FTO will face a changed funding landscape. The FTO will be working with the State Government to ensure NSW is well positioned to benefit from the expected boost to national production.

In August 2006 the NSW Government released a draft State Plan for community comment. The State Plan is a significant document that will set priorities and shape NSW public policy for a decade. In recognition of this, the FTO made a wide-ranging submission outlining the role of the cultural sector and the creative industries in the economic and social development of the State.

As part of the State Plan development, the Government commissioned former Harvard Business School Professor, Jonathan West, to identify those industries with the greatest potential to thrive in the future in NSW. Professor West identified 'entertainment, media, fashion and creative arts' as one of the five key sectors. The State Plan and the Innovation Statement contain a commitment to work with these sectors to support innovation that provides economic benefit to the State.

During the reporting period the FTO also provided advice to the NSW Government on a range of issues relevant to the film industry including, environmental planning policies and regulatory reform. The FTO's public submissions can be found on the agency's website.

Communications

The Audience Development & Marketing Unit manages the FTO's communication needs. The primary communications platforms are the website, the email newsletter and the annual report.

During 2006-07 the FTO's homepage reflected an international campaign to attract more production to NSW. The FTO took a full-page advertisement in Locations Magazine, the official publication of the Association of Film Commissioners International, read by influential dealmakers. The ad featured endorsements from directors Dr George Miller and Baz Luhrmann, actor Nicole Kidman, The Matrix producer Joel Silver, Star Wars producer Rick McCallum and Warners Studios. The FTO and Ausfilm took a Variety Magazine full-page advertisement congratulating the Happy Feet team and Dr. George Miller for their 2007 Oscar win for Best Animated Feature Film.

A printable digital version of the 2006-07 annual report is available from the FTO website, removing the need for large numbers of hard copies to be printed. The unit secured renewable energy carbon credits to cover carbon costs of producing the digital version plus 100 hard copies, printed on recycled paper, for parliamentary and departmental requirements.

A regular fortnightly email newsletter was sent to 4500 opt-in email addresses. The newsletter provided information on FTO funding decisions, application deadlines for funding programs, press releases and FTO-hosted events such as the Yoram Gross celebration for his 60 years in the animation industry. The newsletter also supported industry organisations and funded clients by promoting their conferences, film festivals, forums, screenings and successes.

The unit promoted FTO assistance programs throughout the year through advertisements in industry magazines, online ad banners, postcards and brochures. This included advertising for the Young Filmmaker's Fund, the Digital Visual FX placement scheme, Aurora, and NSW participation at the No Borders co-production market in New York.

Parliamentary screening

In June 2007 the Minister for the Arts, The Hon. Frank Sartor, hosted a NSW parliamentary screening of Clubland allowing members of parliament and their staff to see an FTO supported feature prior to general release. Producer Rosemary Blight and director Cherie Nowlan introduced the film.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

New South Wales Film and Television Office

To Members of the New South Wales Parliament

I have audited the accompanying financial report of New South Wales Film and Television Office, which comprises the balance sheet as at 30 June 2007, the income statement, statement of recognised income and expense and cash flow statement for the year then ended, a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes.

Auditor's Opinion

In my opinion, the financial report:

- presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of New South Wales Film and Television Office as of 30 June 2007, and of its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards (including the Australian Accounting Interpretations)
- is in accordance with section 41B of the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 (the PF&A Act) and the Public Finance and Audit Regulation 2005.

Board's Responsibility for the Financial Report

The members of the Board are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards (including the Australian Accounting Interpretations) and the PF&A Act. This responsibility includes establishing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. These Auditing Standards require that I comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the members of the Board, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

My opinion does not provide assurance:

- about the future viability of the Office,
- that they have carried out their activities effectively, efficiently and economically, or
- about the effectiveness of their internal controls.

Independence

In conducting this audit, the Audit Office has complied with the independence requirements of the Australian Auditing Standards and other relevant ethical requirements. The PF&A Act further promotes independence by:

- providing that only Parliament, and not the executive government, can remove an Auditor-General, and
- mandating the Auditor-General as auditor of public sector agencies but precluding the provision of non-audit services, thus ensuring the Auditor-General and the Audit Office are not compromised in their role by the possibility of losing clients or income.

1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Reporting Entity

The New South Wales Film and Television Office (FTO) as a reporting entity, is a statutory body of the NSW State government. Its activities relate to the promotion of and assistance to, the NSW film and television industry.

The FTO is a not-for-profit entity (as profit is not its principal objective) and it has no cash generating units. The reporting entity is consolidated as part of the NSW Total State Sector Accounts.

These financial statements have been authorised for issue by the Board on 18 October 2007.

(b) Basis of Preparation

The FTO's financial statements are a general purpose financial report which has been prepared in accordance with:

- applicable Australian Accounting Standards (which include Australian equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards (AEIFRS)) and Interpretations;
- the requirements of the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 and Regulation; and
- the Treasurer's Directions.

Plant and equipment and financial assets at 'fair value through profit and loss' are measured at fair value. Other financial report items are prepared on an accrual basis and based on the historical cost convention.

Judgements, key assumptions and estimations management has made are disclosed in the relevant notes to the financial report.

All amounts are rounded to the nearest one thousand dollars and are expressed in Australian currency.

(c) Changes to Presentation of Financial Report

The previous financial report was prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Code for Budget Dependent General Government Sector Agencies. The FTO is no longer required to do so and comparative amounts have been amended where required.

(d) Statement of Compliance

The financial statements and notes comply with Australian Accounting Standards, which include AEIFRS.

The FTO has adopted all of the new and revised standards and interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) that are relevant to its operations and effective from the current annual reporting period.

(e) Income Recognition

Income is measured at the fair value of the consideration or contribution received or receivable. Additional comments regarding the accounting policies for the recognition of income are discussed below.

i. Sale of Goods

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised as revenue when the FTO transfers the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the assets.

ii. Rendering of Services

Revenue is recognised when the service is provided or by reference to the stage of completion (based on labour hours incurred to date) of the contract.

iii. Investment and Other Revenue

Interest revenue is recognised using the effective interest method as set out in AASB 139 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement. Royalty revenue is recognised in accordance with AASB 118 Revenue on an accrual basis in accordance with the substance of the relevant agreement.

iv. Grants and Contributions

Grants and contributions include donations and grants from the Department of Arts, Sport and Recreation. They are generally recognised as income when the FTO obtains control over the assets comprising the grants and contributions. Control over grants and contributions is normally obtained when the obligations relating to the receipt have been met.

v. Government Appropriations

Parliamentary appropriations, received in 2006, were recognised when the FTO obtained control over the assets comprising the appropriations. Control over appropriations is normally obtained on receipt of cash.

For the year ended 30 June 2007

(f) Recognition of Production Investment Grants

Production Investment grants are recognised as an expense at the time when all formal contract documentation has been fully executed by all parties.

(g) Other Funding Programs

Expenses for other programs are also recognised as an expense at the time formal contract documentation has been fully executed.

(h) Personnel Services and Other Provisions

i. Personnel Services Arrangements

The FTO and the Department of Arts, Sports and Recreation (DASR), entered into a Memorandum of Understanding effective from 1 July 2006 which sets out the arrangements for employment and payment of staff working at the Museum which are considered employees of the DASR. All payments to personnel and related obligations are done in the DASR name and ABN and are classified as "Personnel Services" costs in these financial statements.

ii. Personnel Services - Salaries and Wages, Annual Leave, Sick Leave and On-costs

Based on the memorandum of understanding with DASR, liabilities for personnel services are stated as liabilities to the service provider DASR. Salaries and wages (including non-monetary benefits), annual leave and paid sick leave that fall due wholly within 12 months of the reporting date are recognised and measured in respect of employees' services up to the reporting date at undiscounted amounts based on the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled.

If applicable, long-term annual leave that is not expected to be taken within twelve months is measured at present value in accordance with AASB 119 Employee Benefits. Market yields on government bonds are used to discount long-term annual leave.

Unused non-vesting sick leave does not give rise to a liability, as it is not considered probable that sick leave taken in the future will be greater than the benefits accrued in the future.

The outstanding amounts of payroll tax, workers' compensation insurance premiums and fringe benefits tax, which are consequential to the provision of personnel services by DASR, are recognised as liabilities and expenses where the personnel services to which they relate have been recognised.

iii. Long Service Leave and Superannuation

In the financial statements of DASR, the FTO's liabilities for long service leave and defined benefit superannuation are disclosed as assumed by the Crown Entity. Consequently the FTO accounts the equivalent expense and income in its financial statements to reflect this provision of personnel services.

Long service leave is measured at present value in accordance with AASB 119 Employee Benefits. This is based on the application of certain factors, specified by NSW Treasury, to employees with 5 or more years of service, using current rates of pay. These factors were determined based on an actuarial review to approximate present value.

The superannuation expense for the financial year is determined by using the formulae specified in the Treasurer's Directions. The expense for certain superannuation schemes (i.e. Basic Benefit and First State Super), is calculated as a percentage of the employees' salary. For other superannuation schemes (i.e. State Superannuation Scheme and State Authorities Superannuation Scheme), the expense is calculated as a multiple of the employees' superannuation contributions.

(i) Insurance

The FTO's insurance activities are conducted through the NSW Treasury Managed Fund Scheme of self insurance for Government agencies. The expense (premium) is determined by the Fund Manager based on industry benchmarks and the FTO's past experience.

(j) Accounting for the Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where:

- the amount of GST incurred by the agency as a purchaser that is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of an asset or as part of an item of expense.
- receivables and payables are stated with the amount of GST included.

The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is included as part of receivables or payables.

Cash flows are included in the cash flow statement on a gross basis. The GST component of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities which is recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is classified as operating cash flows.

(k) Acquisition of Assets

The cost method of accounting is used for the initial recording of all acquisitions of assets controlled by the FTO. Cost is the amount of cash or cash equivalents paid or the fair value of the other consideration given to acquire the asset at the time of its acquisition or construction or, where applicable, the amount attributed to that asset when initially recognised in accordance with the specific requirements of other Australian Accounting Standards.

Assets acquired at no cost or for nominal consideration, are initially recognised as assets and revenues at their fair value at the date of acquisition.

Fair value is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged between knowledgeable, willing parties in an arm's length transaction.

(l) Capitalisation Thresholds

Property, plant and equipment costing $500 and above individually are capitalised.

(m) Revaluation of Property, Plant and Equipment

As the FTO does not own land, building or infrastructure assets, management considers it unnecessary to carry out a revaluation of physical non-current assets every five years, unless it becomes aware of any material difference in the carrying amount of any class of assets. It is considered by management that the carrying amount of its non-current assets (computers, plant and equipment, etc) would approximately equate to market value.

(n) Impairment of Property, Plant and Equipment

As a not-for-profit entity with no cash generating units, the FTO is effectively exempted from AASB 136 Impairment of Assets and impairment testing. This is because AASB 136 modifies the recoverable amount test to the higher of fair value less costs to sell and depreciated replacement cost. This means that, for an asset already measured at fair value, impairment can only arise if selling costs are material. Selling costs are regarded as immaterial.

(o) Assets not able to be Reliably Measured

The FTO does not hold any assets other than those recognised in the Balance Sheet.

(p) Depreciation of Property, Plant and Equipment

Depreciation is provided for on a straight line basis for all depreciable assets so as to write off the depreciable amount of each asset as it is consumed over its useful life to the FTO.

Depreciation rates are reviewed each year taking into consideration the condition and estimated useful life of the assets.

Category:	Depreciation Rate:
General Plant and equipment	14.30%
Computer equipment	25.00%
Office Fit Out	Over the life of the lease

(q) Restoration Costs

The estimated cost of dismantling and removing an asset and restoring the site is included in the cost of an asset, to the extent it is recognised as a liability.

(r) Maintenance

The costs of day-to-day servicing costs or maintenance are charged as expenses as incurred, except where they relate to the replacement of a component of an asset, in which case the costs are capitalised and depreciated.

(s) Leased Assets

The leasing transactions of the FTO are restricted to operating leases of buildings.

The nature of an operating lease is such that the lessors effectively retain substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased items, the payments on which are included in the determination of the results of operations over the lease term.

Operating lease payments are recognised in the period in which they are incurred. Lease incentives are shown as a liability and amortised via a reduction in lease expenditure over the life of the lease.

(t) Financial Instruments

The FTO's principal financial instruments policies are outlined below. These financial instruments arise directly from the FTO's operations or are required to finance its operations. The FTO does not enter into or trade financial instruments for speculative purposes and does not use financial derivatives.

i. Cash

Cash comprises cash on hand and bank balances. Interest is earned on daily bank balances and paid monthly at the normal commercial rate.

ii. Loans and Receivables

The FTO provides a Production Loan Finance fund out of a $4 million revolving facility provided by NSW Treasury. Loans are recognised as they are drawn down by the production. They must be secured by a distribution agreement, a presale to a broadcaster, or a first ranking charge on the distribution company as well as a direction deed.

The first drawdown is made net of interest, legal fees and an administration fee. Loans are shown grossed up as either current or non-current receivables depending on their repayment date. Interest is only taken up as income in the period to which it relates. The administration fee is taken up as income when the loan is made. The carrying amount approximates net fair value.

Receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. These financial assets are recognised initially at fair value, usually based on the transaction cost or face value. Subsequent measurement is at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less an allowance for any impairment of receivables. An allowance for impairment of receivables is established when there is objective evidence that the entity will not be able to collect all amounts due. Collectability of trade debtors is reviewed on an ongoing basis. Bad debts are written off as incurred.

Short-term receivables with no stated interest rate are measured at the original invoice amount where the effect of discounting is immaterial. The credit risk is the carrying amount (net of any allowance for impairment). No interest is earned on trade debtors. The carrying amount approximates fair value. Sales are made on 30 day terms.

iii. Payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the agency and other amounts. Payables are recognised initially at fair value, usually based on the transaction cost on face value. Subsequent measurement is at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Short term payables with no stated interest rate are measured at the original invoice amount where the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(u) Taxation Status

The activities of the FTO are exempt from income tax. The FTO is registered for GST purposes

(v) New Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued but not yet effective

The FTO did not early adopt any new accounting standards and interpretations that are not yet effective. At the date of authorisation of the financial report, the following standards and interpretations were on issue and applicable to the FTO, but not yet effective:

- AASB 7 'Financial Instruments: Disclosure' that is operative for 31 December 2007 and June 2008 year ends.
- AASB 101 'Presentation of Financial Statements' that is operative for 31 December 2007 and 30 June 2008 year ends.
- AASB 2007-4 'Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards arising from ED 151 and other Amendments' applicable to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 July 2007.

The FTO has assessed the impact of these new standards and interpretations and considers the impact to be insignificant.

Royalties are received from distributors of motion pictures in accordance with the terms and conditions of the individual distribution agreement. After specified costs and expenses are deducted, these royalties are then distributed to the original investors in the motion picture in accordance with the individual contract.

Funds held on behalf of investors represent royalties received but not yet either reconciled or distributed under the terms of the contract. The carrying amount approximates net fair value.

Fair Value

Financial instruments are carried at (amortised) cost which approximates fair value.
